BOYS WALK ON ROAD, HIT, ONE DEAD, PALHURT

Third Arlington Heights Youth Unscathed in Sun- day Night Accident

Walking on the wrong side of the road brought death to an Arlington Heights boy, serious injury to a second, and a narrow escape to the third of a group last Sunday night. Vernon Sebastian, 19 years old, of 209 South Dunton avenue, Arlington Heights, died in the Mt. Prospect hospital Monday night of injuries sustained in the accident.

Frank Mertes, whose home is on State road, north of Arlington Heights, is a patient in the hospital suffering from a cut head and bruises. Harry Helfers, 8 South Dunton street, Arlington Heights, is the unhurt member of the party.

The boys were on their way to the Arlington ballroom, on Higgins road near Arlington Heights road, when the death occurred. They were walking westward on the north side of the pavement with their backs to oncoming traffic. Dark clothes helped to make them hard to distinguish in the night.

Helfers was walking at the edge of the pavement, the other two on it. They were struck by an auto driven by Norman Schultz, 1301 Touhy avenue, Park Ridge, who was absolved of all blame at an inquest held in the hospital in Mt. Prospect Tuesday morning. Schultz and his passengers, Kenneth Nieder, 1001 Touhy avenue, Park Ridge, and Miss Aileen Clavey, 929 Prairie street, Park Ridge, testified that they were unseen until the auto was almost upon them.

Sending the girl to the ballroom, Schultz and Nieder with Helfers took the injured boys to the hospital despite the fact that the crash had put the lights of Schultz's auto out of commission. Sebastian did not recover consciousness. Death was the result of shock and hemorrhage due to fracture. Mertes was thrown into a ditch and was unconscious until the following morning.

Funeral services for Vernon Sebastian were held yesterday afternoon in the Lauterberg and Gehler chapel and the St. John's Evangelical church in Arlington Heights with the Rev. M. L. Straube officiating. Burial was in Elk Grove cemetery.

He was employed in the Arlington Heights post office as special delivery messenger and lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Helfers. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Lillian Adam, 201 South Dunton street, Arlington Heights; a brother, Lawrence Sebastian; and two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Siwick of Chicago and Miss Ruth Sebastian of Arlington Heights. He was born in Des Plaines January 30, 1916.

Members of the coroner's jury which returned a verdict of accidental death were Arno P. Schramm, 307 South Emmerson street, Mt. Prospect, engraver; Corlis D. Fosdick, 100 Edward street, Mt. Prospect, unemployed; Lawrence E. Hodges, 123 School street, Mt. Prospect, postmaster; Edwin Haberkamp, Elmhurst road, florist; Alfred Wendt, 20 Prospect avenue, Mt. Prospect, cement worker; and Fred Naser, 2706 Lawton avenue, Chicago, chauffeur. The quiz was conducted by Sal J. Oliverio, deputy coroner.

SERVICEMAN INJURED

The loosening of the rim from an auto wheel caused a serious injury Saturday evening to Harvey Horath, 16 East Northwest highway, Arlington Heights. The end of the springy metal cut him on the side of the head narrowly missing eye and temple.

Page Papa Dione; He Ought To Be in Arlington Friday

This Friday night is to be "Family Night" at Arlington Heights. Each year some special night has been set aside as "family night." A real bargain is offered this time. Not only should the Bensenville game in itself be a headliner, but there is to be dancing afterwards to the music of Earl Fredericks orchestra. In line with the "Family Night" feature an entire family is to be admitted for a single price of 35 cents. No matter how many there are in the family, all will be admitted for the one price—father, mother and as many children as there are.

The first Bensenville game before Christmas was a humdinger. Arlington won by a narrow margin with a last quarter rally. Those who have seen the last few games Arlington has played know that they are on the upgrade. Bensenville, too, has developed into a beautiful passing team and have shown unexpected scoring ability in their recent games. They possess a pair of real basketgetters in Jennings and Pilgrim. Freeman at guard also has been scoring a lot all year. All they have need to be a real team is a little more size. Anyone staying away because it

Mr. and Mrs. Moehling Married Sixty Years

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Boehling, who reside at the corner of Dunton and Miner street in Arlington Heights, Ill., received a beautiful basket of flowers for their sixtieth wedding anniversary on January 28, 1935. Mr. and Mrs. Moehling were married sixty years ago at the Immanuel Lutheran church in Des Plaines, Ill.

Will Move to Mt. Prospect. They will retire in the near future to a new home which is now under construction at the south end of Main street in Mt. Prospect, built by their son, John, where they may live in quiet and contentment for the remainder of their lives, God willing. Congratulations.

FORM COUNTY FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION

To Ask State Department for Yearly School in Cook County

Starting with the idea of greater co-operation between the fire departments of the northwest towns, the formation of a Cook County Firemen's Association was recently completed and recognition of the association by the state fire marshal's office is to be sought. If the latter is obtained an effort is to be made to have the state establish a fire tower in the northern part of Cook county where yearly firemen schools can be held under state supervision. At the present time, any firemen desiring to attend such a school must go to Springfield.

Temporary officers have been selected with Joe Boentredder, chief of Des Plaines Dept., as president and Wesley Comfort of Palatine, as vice-president.

Arlington Heights Firemen to Be Given Local Vehicle Tags

The members of the Arlington Heights Fire Department will hereafter be given their village vehicle tag upon application without cost. Following in the footsteps of Des Plaines where similar action was taken recently, the Arlington Heights board voted the free tags Monday night.

Stone Contract Awarded Arlington Elevator and Coal Company

The Arlington Heights village board, Monday night, awarded the stone contract for the resurfacing of Foundry road, to Arlington Elevator & Coal Co. When bids were opened upon this job the prices of all firms were alike and the award was a matter of choice. A previous contract under practically the same conditions had been awarded to Tibbitts-Cameron Lumber Co.

Elroy Winkelman Is At South Bend Factory

At the visit of the editor to the Winkelman Tire and Battery Shop, this week, he found that Elroy is gone for two weeks. He is taking factory training in bendix work at the South Bend factory of that firm. Elroy is never satisfied in any branch that he takes up with less than becoming an expert in that particular field.

STYLE SHOW COMING

The American Legion auxiliary are planning on holding a style show some time before Easter. Time, date and place to be announced as soon as arrangements are completed.

BIRTHDAY WEEK OF BOY SCOUTS BEGINS TONIGHT

President Will Speak; Local Boys Gather at Meeting Place

President Franklin D. Roosevelt will broadcast a special message to Boy Scouts of the nation tonight on the occasion of the opening of Boy Scout Anniversary week in observance of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the organization. The 15 minute broadcast carried over both national chains will start at 7:45 o'clock. Walter W. Head, president of the Boy Scouts of America, will open the broadcast from the scene of the Boy Scout circus in St. Louis, Mo.

President Roosevelt will speak direct from the White House. Other national leaders will also participate. One feature of the program will be the simultaneous repetition of the Boy Scout pledge by Scouts throughout the entire country that are listening to the broadcast.

All Scouts of the Northwest Suburban Area are expected to assemble at their meeting places or other points with their parents and members of sponsoring organizations to participate in the program. Other features of the evening will include the lighting of candles on the birthday cake as a brief review of the 25 years of the organization. Demonstrations and other activities will occupy the balance of the evening's program.

Beginning with this evening's event and continuing for the next 10 days the Boy Scouts of the area will be most active in their observance. Tomorrow the Scouts will participate in troop and district good turn activities, hikes, demonstrations and similar features. Many of the churches are planning special Boy Scout services for Sunday, which is National Scout Sunday.

Scouts and their leaders will attend services in uniform and in many instances groups will attend in a body and participate in special services arranged for the occasion. Monday fitting recognition will be given to Scouts in the schools and Tuesday, many of the districts and troops are planning hikes to points of interest in or about the Northwest Suburban area.

Although anniversary week will officially close February 14, the special Boy Scout mobilization being planned for local Scouts next Saturday, will complete the week's program. All of the Scouts in the entire area are to be assembled at Park Ridge between 9:30 and 10 o'clock Saturday morning. A special Boy Scout program has been arranged in the Pickwick theatre starting at 10 o'clock.

Upon the completion of this program the entire group will hike to the Maine township high school where they will participate in a program lasting throughout the afternoon. Every boy will have an opportunity to swim in Maine's fine tank and enjoy various recreational, educational and instructive features that have been arranged. This day's activity is not limited to Scouts, but are open to all boys of Scout age, and those wishing to participate in the whole program should bring their lunch and a towel with them.

I. C. C. Engineer Visits Palatine Death Crossings; Board is Told of Hearing

Palatine's railway crossings were investigated last Saturday by an engineer from the Illinois Commerce commission, who was accompanied by a Chicago and North Western railway engineer and a third man. Considerable attention was given to the three main crossings, Chicago avenue, Broadway street, and Bothwell-Slade streets.

On these three 10 deaths have occurred in the past five years. They will be the subject of further study and thought by the engineer, according to a report made to the village board's meeting Monday night by Lester J. Steinbrink, chairman of the special citizen's committee on crossing safety. Mr. Steinbrink told the board of the hearing held last week. E. F. Steinbrink, village clerk, read a letter setting the date for the second hearing on February 27 instead of the previous day as first set. Henry J. Harz, village attorney, who was absent from the board's meeting, was criticized by the board members for "not showing up" at the hearing.

Cartoonist Confesses To Arlington Lions Club Why He Killed "Jean"

Chester Gould, the originator of Dick Tracy, Junior and late Jean Penfield, told some "shop" secrets to the Arlington Heights Lions club Tuesday evening, among them why he "killed off" Jean Penfield, one of the characters of his comic strip that appears in the Chicago Tribune and 115 other daily newspapers. Mr. Gould had manufactured "Jean" out of the air, only to learn after the character had become part of the Dick Tracy story that there was a Jean Penfield in real life, residing in New York, who objected very much to the use of her name.

It was easier to allow the underworld bandits to kill Jean in the story than to "settle" with the New York woman whose name appears in "Who's Who."

There are many other difficulties that are experienced by a producer of a comic strip and Mr. Gould told a number of them to the Lions who will hereafter read the strip with increased interest because of the contact between them and the author that was formed at the weekly dinner and meeting of the Lions club this week.

Mr. Gould answered a lot of questions that evening, among them why he does not give Junior a hair cut, why his characters do not change their clothes, etc.

Mr. Gould explained that his real purpose in starting the strip was to tell in pictures that a life of crime does not pay. Incidents in the life of Dick Tracy and fellow characters are taken out of the front page news of the day. The methods employed by the criminals in the strip and the manner in which they are caught, are taken from facts gained by the author at the criminal laboratory of the Chicago police department and personal contacts with police officials.

It was years after Mr. Gould had the desire to become a cartoonist before he had a strip accepted. Now that the strip is being used, he must work harder than ever in producing the product. Three days a week he starts work at his office in the Tribune tower at five o'clock.

Mr. Gould has a wife and a little girl, neither one of whom knows any more about what is going to happen to Dick Tracy and his friends, than does any other reader of the Chicago Tribune.

This is the third of a series of talks on crime prevention that has been given before the Lions club during the past three months. Judge Jonas, spoke at the December meeting. He was followed in January by a demonstration of the lie detector, and the series culminated this month in Mr. Gould, the greatest "paper" detective in America today. His strip first appeared in the New York Herald early in 1931, followed by the adoption of the feature by the Chicago Tribune in the fall of the same year. Since that time a number of imitations have appeared and are appearing in competitive newspapers.

Seniors of A. H. H. S. Will Give Play Mar. 9

"The Youngest," a three-act play selected because of its adaptability to presentation by a student cast, will be presented by the Seniors of the Arlington Heights high school March 9. Miss Dorothy Bristow will direct the production. Although new to the school, she has had several years of experience coaching amateur and semi-professional plays elsewhere.

Miss Virginia Weber has been cast in the part of Nancy, Miss Florence Patrick as Muff, Miss Miriam Noyes as Mrs. Winslow, Miss Minetta Huizenga as Katie, Miss Irma Winheim as August, Frederick Nette as Oliver, Ralph Spears as Richard, James Helwig as Alan, and Billy Miles as Mark.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS STORES

The fourth week of the Hartman shoe sale—and the bargains are still as important as ever. Mr. Hartman insists upon moving every pair on his shelves if bargains will do it.

John Angeloff, the new manager at Sadecky's says that after the store last week-end, he is convinced that the general public is ready to respond to values in an independent store as readily as it does to a chain establishment. John ought to know as he had five years experience in a local chain store and he's found that the specials advertised by Sadecky in last week's Herald sold like "no body's business."

Gifts for Valentine Day—articles that any girl or woman will appreciate any day of the year are being featured in the advertisement of the Emerald Shop this week.

Collignon's Delicatessen has gone in for fresh caught fish and claims that the sale of such a product has exceeded all expectations. Last week some of the perch were still flopping when he purchased them at the wholesale market. Announcement of this Friday's prices are on page two.

ALL OFFICIALS OF VILLAGES OUT THIS YEAR

Election Entries Start Next Friday in Biggest Local Race

Entries in the annual race for village officers will begin next Friday, with more candidates to be elected than ever before in the history of the state. Under a new law adopted last year, all village officials, president, six trustees, clerk, and police magistrate, will be voted upon to serve concurrent 2-year terms.

Those officials elected last year were chosen to serve only one year. The new system will be cutting the elections from annual to bi-annual affairs and so making a cut in expenses, also introduced the possibility that a village's entire officialdom may be ousted and replaced with inexperienced men unfamiliar with the village's government or its recent actions.

The bill making this change was pushed through the legislature at its last regular session by a downstate man on the plea of reducing government costs by cutting the number of elections. It was enacted before village officials and governmental leaders knew anything about it, and the change has been condemned by thinking governmental leaders throughout Illinois.

A bill now before the legislature would make further changes in village government by extending the terms of office for local officials from 2 to 4 years. Municipal leaders oppose this if the terms are to be concurrent, as that would put the village into the hands of a group of officials who would be without check of any kind until the four years ended.

However, if the terms are to be staggered, as in the past, with 4-year terms and bi-annual elections, the change is viewed with more favor. This would restore continuity to the municipal government by leaving half the experienced men in office at each election, while retaining the benefits of fewer elections.

Candidates will file for office from February 15 to March 12. The election will be April 16, with terms of the present officials ending May 1.

Arlington Heights Dollar Days Feb. 22 & 23

Arlington Heights storekeepers are going to offer the greatest bargains of the year in a big two day sale, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 22 and 23. Arlington Heights people are urged to wait for this sale. Nearly every store is participating in the event. While dollar bargains will predominate, there will be nearly as many specials offered at prices from 10c up.

A special edition will carry the Dollar Day bargains to the surrounding communities and it will be an event that will be well worth waiting for.

Bill Would Allow Bonds To Pay School Teachers

Bonds for the payments of claims and of orders issued for the wages of teachers, and the levying of taxes to pay the principal and interest on such bonds are authorized by a bill introduced in the state legislature last week by Mrs. Bernice T. Van Der Vries, of Winnetka, representative from the seventh district.

A referendum clause is attached to the bill which has the backing of the association of school boards which is trying to give assistance in straightening out the financial affairs of distressed school districts and place them on a sounder basis.

Production of East Side Well now Metered

The village, with the use of relief labor and materials gathered from different sources at no expense has installed the meter formerly used at Searsdale well upon the well on the water tower site. A comparative check of the meter with the power consumption will soon determine the operation cost of that unit of the local water system.

tions and adding those of longer terms.

Candidates will file for office from February 15 to March 12. The election will be April 16, with terms of the present officials ending May 1.

HERALD TO GIVE SCHOLARSHIPS TO YOUNG FOLK

$500 Worth of Training in Business School will be Contest Prizes

More than $500 worth of free scholarships in the Suburban Metropolitan business college of Oak Park, are to be awarded to a group of young folks who have attended the Arlington Heights high school. A trade at home free scholarship contest is to be conducted in Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect sponsored by the Paddock Publications and a group of progressive merchants in which the merchants will issue scholarship receipts or coupons for the same amount as the cash purchase made or the bill that is paid.

The contest is open to all, and the contestants have nothing to buy or nothing to sell. It costs nothing to enter. The prizes, over $500 worth, are awarded to those who gather up the greatest value in coupons before the close of the contest, which lasts four weeks.

Full information will appear in next week's issues of the Arlington Heights Herald and the Mt. Prospect Herald.

A large group of contestants are entering the contest and they are going to ask all of their friends and acquaintances to save all of the coupons they receive when making purchases or paying bills. Each contestant will have pledge cards for his friends to sign in order to keep track of the ones who are saving for him.

Every one is asked to sign a pledge card for one or the other of the contestants. It costs you nothing to assist some deserving young man or woman to win one of these free awards. When you sign a card you do not obligate yourself except that you will save the coupons you receive for that particular contestant.

After you have signed a pledge card you are asked to be loyal and save only for the one who secured your signature. See next week's Herald for full details.

IMPROVEMENT OF VEGETABLES TO BE STUDIED

Growers' Schools Will Be Held Next Week; Experts to Talk

Consumers as well as producers stand to profit from the Cook county vegetable growers' schools to be held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, according to the program which has just been announced by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. The emphasis which will be placed on improving the quality and the marketing of vegetables will give consumers a large stake in the schools. Insofar as growers themselves are concerned, all of their leading problems will be discussed in the light of the latest information that is available.

The first of the schools will be held Tuesday and Wednesday in the St. Matthew's school hall on Milwaukee avenue, one-half mile north of Dempster street and four miles east of Des Plaines. This session will be for growers in the northern part of Cook county and in Lake, DuPage and neighboring counties. The second school will be held Wednesday and Thursday in the Cook County Farm Bureau hall, 2414-16 West Grove street, Blue Island, for growers in the southern part of Cook county and in Will and surrounding counties.

With slight exceptions the same program will be given at both schools. Topics scheduled for discussion at both schools include the outlook for vegetable production in 1935, results of work at the Cook county experiment station, the insect outlook for 1935, possibilities and costs of irrigation, water requirements of truck crops, selling vegetables on the Chicago market, possibilities for a study of local marketing problems, vegetable disease outlook, soil tests and their interpretation, and new and improved varieties of vegetables with special reference to disease resistance.

Speakers appearing at both schools will include J. P. McCollum, Lee A. Somers and K. J. Kadow, of the department of horticulture, U. of I. College of Agriculture; L. H. Shropshire, assistant entomologist, Illinois State Natural History Survey; F. W. Wissing, March Irrigation company; Richard Boonstra, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois; O. G. Barrett, farm adviser of Cook county, and R. H. Bray, of the department of agronomy, U. of I. College of Agriculture.

J. W. Lloyd, chief in vegetable gardening at the agricultural college, and Walter Sass, a local grower, will be added speakers at the St. Matthew's school. Diseases of seedlings also will be discussed by Kadow as a special subject at this school.

Louis Wetterman, a local grower and M. E. Tascher, assistant farm adviser of Cook county, will be added speakers at the Blue Island school. Problems in tomato growing in the Chicago area will be a special subject at this school.

Arlington Heights Garden Club Question Box

NEW THINGS FOR YOUR GARDEN

Here is a list and a short description of some of the new flowers, and new varieties of some of the old favorites, that are being offered by the seed houses this spring:

Rust-resistant Snapdragons. In this locality, as well as in many others, we have been troubled considerably with the disease known as rust on these plants. A strain that will be free from this trouble will be very welcome.

Wilt-resistant Asters. Here is another old favorite which often gives disappointing results because of the disease known usually as the "Yellows." New varieties are being offered which are said to be almost immune from this ailment. These cannot be obtained in all varieties and colors, so when purchasing seed, be sure to select the wilt-resistant varieties and colors. An excellent strain is the one called Giant Crego. One member of the Garden club has raised these which produced flowers four and a half inches in diameter on individual stems eighteen inches long.

Nasturtiums. In 1933 there was introduced the yellow double variety which they called Golden Glean. This has been very popular wherever grown, and has been followed up now with another new one, the Scarlet Glean. There is also advertised this year still another strain of hybrids, known as the Glorious Glean which comes in several colors, all ruffled and semi-double.

Marigolds. The new type is known as the Yellow Supreme. It is lemon yellow and the cover is similar to a carnation, only larger. Neither the flowers nor the foliage have the odor common to the ordinary marigolds, which nearly everyone dislikes.

Annual Phlox. We do not know of any flower in the garden which gives the beautiful mixture of color markings as the annual phlox, or Phlox drummondii. The new Gigantea Art Shades strains, have larger flowers and if anything, a still larger variety of pastel shades.

There are also, of course, many new type of dahlias, gladioli, and lilies either developed or imported every year. But we do not care much about these as a general rule on account of their expense. It is very common for the seed houses to ask from $5 to $15 for a single bulb or tuber of the newest developments or importations. If you can afford it, and like to have the rare varieties, all well and good. But in all three of these, many of the most beautiful types are among the lowest priced, and you can purchase them right here in Arlington Heights.

Obituary of Mrs. J. J. Dietrich.
A new aviation feature written by George Kloepper.

And other matter, all of which will appear in our next issue.

We're sorry, but it is a poor publisher who is unable to find space for all available advertising.

Bonus Announced

A 5 per cent extra will be paid to 2,450 employees of the Jewel Tea company April 15, according to an announcement made Tuesday by M. H. Karker, president of the company. The distribution will give out approximately $70,000.

NEWS FROM TROOP 5

Scout week is from February 8 to 14, and commemorates the 25th anniversary of the founding of Boy Scouting. Friday, February 8 at 7:30, Troop 5 is giving a party and is inviting the parents of Boy Scouts as well as Troop 7. We have planned a good program and request a good response from the parents.

A court of honor is being held the latter part of February. Our boys have been working hard on their tests, and we hope to see such rapid progress this year as we did in 1934. T. R.—F. G.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Love" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 3.

The Golden Text was, "Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another" (1 John 4:11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee" (Jeremiah 31:3).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In divine Science, we have not as much authority for considering God masculine, as we have for considering Him feminine; for Love imparts the clearest idea of Deity. . . . God is Love. More than this we cannot ask, higher we cannot look, farther we cannot go." (p. 517, 6).

FOR SALES OR MANAGEMENT

Use Your Telephone

Experts testify that in competition for business the sincerity and personality of sales representatives count for much. The favorable reception so important to success in selling may often be gained without taking the time and trouble to visit customers and prospects in person. The telephone, which carries your voice, also carries your personality and faithfully conveys the impression of your sincerity. With your telephone you can cover your sales territory without leaving your desk. Out of town calls are useful also in handling other business problems—deliveries, collections, conference with associates and a multitude of other details. Long distance telephoning is quick, clear and inexpensive.

What is the news? Why do you ask?
Since news gatherers have a hard task;
Tis not for scarcity of news, yet such "as is" we do not choose;
Our village is a quiet place, and those who want to lead the race,
Find wider space in city papers. We set down here some lighted tapers,
That lead you on to read the best, Imagination will find the rest.

Just imagine all the disagreeable bits of news were cheerful tales and all the bad deeds were good—yes, just imagine.

A new moon and an eclipse of the sun to set off this month of birth-

An accident on the highway in which young Sebastian lost his life.

Here comes a new citizen, Mr. and Mrs. Willert of South Dunton avenue, are the parents of a daughter born Sunday, February 3.

The Woman's Aid of the Presbyterian church, hold their regular session Thursday afternoon this week, February 7.

Mrs. S. C. Hodgkins, who has not been well the past week, while caring for her sister, Mrs. W. W. Guild.

"Dust of the Earth," February 20 and 21, given by L. L. L. Men's club, at the Lutheran school auditorium.

Postmaster Helfers, who makes frequent visits to his mother, receiving treatment in a city hospital for injuries resulting from a fall on the ice, this week had a painful duty to perform on his visit, the telling his mother of the death of her grandson, V. Sebastian, who was killed in an accident on the highway Saturday night.

Mrs. Berchold had a visit last Sunday from her son, Arthur Doehring and his family from Maywood.

Mr. Stearns of the Southside school, is detained from his place by a light case of measles. Mrs. S. E. Elfeld is substituting in his place during his absence.

Miss K. J. Kealy and Miss Johnson attended the fifty-seventh anniversary celebration of the Christian Endeavor organization at the second Presbyterian church in Chicago, Sunday, February 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stadler came home last week from their vacation motor trip south, principally spent in Florida, where Mr. Stadler has relatives. They were charmed by the mild climate leaving here with the mercury two degrees below, they journeyed into a land of flowers and enjoyed every minute of their all too brief stay.

Miss Agnes Dunn was hostess to the Little Flower club Wednesday evening in her home on East Euclid street.

Anna Bell Johnson went to Springfield last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Grace Scheuts-Thomas, who has employment there.

Mrs. H. C. Cleveland came in to tell us she was leaving for a visit to her son, Prof. Cleveland, at Bloomington, Indiana. She returned home Tuesday this week, and if her visit with her son's family "Billie" and the baby was as happy as her face radiated in anticipation, we are sure she had a delightful time.

The Sunshine club will meet for their regular meeting Wednesday, the 13th, with Mrs. Raoul Peeters, in her home on North Dunton avenue, instead of with Mrs. Charles Peters, as stated last week.

The Misses Frances and Amy Crisler from Glen Ellyn called on their relatives in the Heights Sunday. Miss Frances is principal of one of Glen Ellyn schools and Miss Amy, teacher in a Chicago high school. They spent their vacation on a southern trip to Louisiana, where so many teachers went.

"Dust of the Earth," February 20 and 21, given by L. L. L. Men's club, at the Lutheran school auditorium.

Miss Katie Hipp fell on the ice one day last week and was painfully, though not seriously, injured.

Mrs. Charles Gaare and Mrs. Drexel from Palatine, made their aunt, Mrs. John Berchold, a pleasant visit Thursday last week.

Thursday last week Mrs. Koehnke took in her car, Mrs. C. E. McWharter, Mrs. Kraft and Mrs. Mollering, to the Elmhurst hospital to visit Mrs. Kaeppl, who is recovering from her severe injuries received in an auto accident some time ago. Owing to the severe and critical nature of her injuries, her recovery will be slow, but her friends are hopeful it will not be too long delayed.

From Arlington Heights folks out in California, we hear that Mr. Bell, who made many friends in the Heights while with Mr. Berchold, has a good position out in California, and is doing well. Of course Mr. and Mrs. Bell are in the friendly groups out there. The sons have good positions and all doing well.

The Cornelia club met with Mrs. Elmer Crane Monday night this week. Mrs. Sayre is the president and about 24 members were present. After the business routine, there were lively games and choice refreshments with a social genial good time with their thoughtful hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Reimer from Oak Park, were guests of his sister, Mrs. Arthur McElhose and family, Sunday.

Mrs. Thurman Dodge and Mrs. Hoss made a business trip to Washington, D. C. last week.

The Social Five Hundred were entertained by Mrs. William Schlo- mann in her home Thursday this week.

About two weeks ago, Mrs. August Geffert had a fall on her basement steps from which she received serious injuries from which she is now obliged to take a two weeks rest in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Schnuerstein from city way, were Sunday guests of her sister, Mrs. Allen Schulte and family.

A number of the old time birthday group surprised Mrs. W. W. Guild by giving her a jolly surprise party Thursday last week. A day in advance of her birthday, which is February 1. Mrs. Guild was happy to see them and her happy spirit radiated to all her guests. It was good for them all.

The old time Mother's club will meet with Mrs. Allen Schulte February 14, Thursday, next week.

On Friday this week, February 15, the troops 5 and 7 Boy Scouts, will meet in the Legion home to celebrate the 25th year of the organization of Scouting. They will be assisted in this observance by the auxiliary and other mothers. It is to be made a joyous occasion. There will be a wonderful birthday cake with 25 candles, each candle representing some event in the pathway of their progress.

The Woman's club, February 20, Wednesday. There is to be staged in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Heller, a Valentine party. Don't forget such a party as only the club entertainment committee know how to commandeer (or pull). Choose your Valentine speedily, or someone may choose you.

Mrs. Olive Allison plans to stay with her sister in California until about May 1, when she will return to her cottage at the Des Plaines camp ground.

Sunday evening, February 14, there will be held a special missionary thank offering service in the Presbyterian church. The pastor, Dr. Kossack, will speak and the junior choir will have charge of the service.

Mrs. Arthur Jenkinson of Park Ridge came to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Guild Monday this week. Both Mrs. Jenkinson and her husband have been too ill to come for some time.

Free candy Friday and Saturday at the Nu-Vail Food Shop with every bread purchase.

Leonard Bolte and Miss Wilhelmina Kuecker were married Saturday in Chicago.

Monday night this week the Legion auxiliary held a special Americanism program as follows: A group in costume representing George Washington and his family. Miss Virginia McElhose read Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg speech. Mrs. George Parker gave historical sketches. There was patriotic singing. The closing was the singing of Illinois. There was a choice luncheon and a happy patriotic season enjoyed in our good old American fashion. Arranged by the committee on Americanism, consisting of Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. McElhose.

The young ladies of the St. James' parish will sponsor a Valentine party and dance Wednesday evening, Feb. 13, in the school hall. Admission 35 cents per person. The ladies are busy in preparing decorations in keeping with the Valentine spirit.

February Safety Poster

KEEP YOUR HEAD AND EYES UP—LOOK!

The dangers of pedestrians, bundled up for cold or blustery weather, walking into the path of oncoming autos is shown in the February Safety poster distributed to schools by the Chicago Motor club. The poster also depicts the difficulties of the driver, whose windshield coats with snow or ice and limits his vision.

Double Gift Distribution Made Necessary

It may be the exceptionally good first run pictures or a natural habit or more probably the fine awards plus the extraordinary sound and projection or any of a half dozen or more popular reasons, but at any event the Arlington Theatre's capacity of 531 seats and space room for another hundred or more cannot cope with the demand for seats at the first show. Presuming that the gift awards coming along at about 8 o'clock, has something to do with the early crowds Mr. Godshaw has a solution to make everybody happy and comfortable. TWO GIFT DISTRIBUTIONS of equal size and proportion.

It will not mean that the list of awards will be cut in half. It means there will be twice as many gifts of identical values at both shows. The first gifts at 8, the second about 9:30. The doors will open at 6:15. The first show will start about 6:45. The second show will start about 8:45 or sooner. Those coming as late as 9:20 will see a complete show and also enjoy one of the gift distributions. There will be just as much awarded at the 9 o'clock show as there will be at the show starting at 6:45. Plenty of seats will be available for the second show at 8:30 or 8:45.

Arlington Heights O. E. S.

Arlington Heights O. E. S. will meet on Thursday, Feb. 14. After the stated meeting there will be a Valentine party for the members. We are sorry to hear that Sister Helfers has a fractured hip and is confined to the hospital; also that Sister Carla Ehret, our junior past matron, is ill in the hospital. We extend our sympathy to Sister Lillian Adam, whose son was injured and died in the Mt. Prospect hospital on Monday.

South Side Breezes

The children and relatives of August Holtz, So. Mitchell, gathered in his home Saturday evening, February 2, at an informal party in honor of his seventieth birthday. Refreshments were served and a general good time had.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wood attended a dinner party in Chicago Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Williams entertained a group of friends at an evening party recently.

"Dust of the Earth," February 20 and 21, given by L. L. L. Men's club, at the Lutheran school auditorium.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sujack were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Jargino of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Capps entertained guests for the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rubendahl of Freeport, Ill.

Little Jean Blackburn underwent a tonsil operation the first of the week.

Miss Phoebe Meyers, whose cheerful "number please" has been missed, when occasion demanded use of the telephone, is back again after an absence because of illness.

Seems good to have the Kopulins back among their old neighbors again. They are living at 440 So. Evergreen.

Mrs. Gus Schaeffer, So. Mitchell, underwent a major operation Monday, at the Lutheran Memorial hospital. Her mother, Mrs. Aukamp, is looking after the household.

Officers and room mothers of the P. T. A. will be attending a meeting at Park Ridge Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hammond and son are spending the week at George Palmers.

We were sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Fred Ehret, who is well known here, having lived for several years here before moving to Palatine. She is in the American-Norwegian hospital.

Mrs. Mary Bederske of Wadsworth, Ill., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert Cavanaugh this week.

"Dust of the Earth," February 20 and 21, given by L. L. L. Men's club, at the Lutheran school auditorium.

If you need any plumbing or heating repairs, call 478 or 479 and you can get a first class job at a reasonable price. Malzahn & Goedke have served Arlington Heights in their line of work for many years and are specialists in their line of work. Estimates will be given on request for plumbing, heating or sheet metal work.

The St. Cecelia Choral Society Big Card Party

Wednesday night, January 30, the Choral Society (Saint Cecelia) of St. James church, gave a card party in their school hall. A most enjoyable program was given as follows:

Piano duet by Raoul and Donald Peeters. Jacqueline Toussaint gave a character sketch in costume, Mickey Mouse looking for Minnie. Then came a solo, "Silent As the Night" by Mrs. Anne Donlea; tap dancing by Miss Josephine Brodeen. Virginia McElhose gave another pleasing reading. Next a quartet, Mrs. Toussaint, Mrs. Donlea, Mr. Coughlin and Mr. Toussaint sang. Mrs. Cizek was accompanist to all the vocal numbers. All a charming musical treat. Following this program, there were 45 tables ready for the games. These were played with good natured vigor and intent to win. The door prizes were a beautiful floor lamp. The second prize was a beautiful etching suitably framed of the President. At the tables each prize received was a solid silver salad fork. Other prizes were several satin pillows donated by Peter Frederick; also donated as prizes three boxes of Fannie May candies; a whistling tea kettle, donated by Miss Agnes Dunn. A shamoo and finger wave from Warsaw Beauty shop; also donated were other prizes as follows: A box of toilet powder, also boxes of confectionery.

If in our haste anything or any person has been omitted, don't blame the chairman for she carefully enumerated all that was in this wonderful entertainment.

The Choral society desire publicly express their appreciative thanks, who so splendidly helped to make this party a grand success. We would not fail to mention the appetizing, good to eat luncheon so bountifully served by the committee.

Big Masquerade Is Saturday Night

There will be lots of fun for old folks and young folks if you come masked to the prize masquerade dance at Seip's hall, Palatine, Ill., Saturday night, Feb. 9. Meet your friends. Help make this a real homecoming. Masks can be obtained at hall.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mr. P. B. Thornas was pleasantly surprised on his birthday last Tuesday evening by his friends and associates at the E. W. A. Rowles plant of which he is manager of the shades and eraser division.

The evening was spent in playing pinocle by the men and bridge by the ladies, after which lunch was served and all the guests departed wishing Mr. Thornas many happy returns of the day.

About the Tournament

Libertyville tied Palatine's record by winning conference championships with both light and heavyweight teams. Palatine's record of last year was in scheduled play while Libertyville turned the trick in the tournament last week.

While Libertyville won the tournament trophies, probably the outstanding achievement of the tournament was turned in by Warren in winning their way to the semi-finals at the expense of Wauconda and Antioch and then leading Libertyville all the way until the finish of a game which went overtime. Warren had lost seven straight games in conference competition. A great team leader in the clever half-hawk Zimmerman is the reason for the unusual showing of Kelton's team. Dixon, a sharp shooting forward, also had quite a hand in the upsets staged by the Warren team.

One of the most unusual features of Warren's play was their feat of holding Antioch scoreless for 23 minutes of their game. Antioch had a 9-2 lead at the end of five minutes. Then Warren held them without a tally until the final four minutes of the game and won 13 to 11. At that Warren missed 10 out of 11 free throws.

The tourney was featured by close games. The widest margin of victory was but 7 points in any game. This was the margin of the Libertyville-Leyden final and the Leyden-Bensenville first round game. There were two games decided by 6 points, one by 4 points, one by 3 points, three by 2 points and the Palatine-Arlington by a single point.

The two overtime contests of the semi-finals probably established a record which will stand for some time as will the margin of victory for the 9 tournament games as a group which averaged a margin of but 3.7 between winners and losers.

Basket shooting was, on the average, however, about at its worst for conference tournaments. Leyden for example did not have a single good night of scoring. Libertyville probably missed the most shots of any team in a single game in the overtime battle with Warren. In the Palatine game Leyden made one basket in their first 40 shots. On the other hand Warren's shooting against Libertyville was phenomenal and Libertyville's lights hit 35 per cent of their shots against Palatine.

Tourney Highlights

1. Closest game—Palatine 14, Arlington 13.
2. Highest game score—Libertyville 36 in final.
3. Highest individual player scoring for one game—Dixon of Warren 12.
4. Highest scoring for entire tourney—Matussek of Leyden 35 in four games.
5. Best comeback to win—Warren beat Antioch 13-11 after trailing 9-2 in first five minutes of game.
6. Most unexpected score—Warren playing an overtime with Libertyville.
7. Best free throwing by a team—Leyden 13 out of 18 in final game.
8. Best individual free throwing—Matussek of Leyden with 5 out of 5 in final. Jaeger's 6 out of 8 for Libertyville in same game.
9. Best scoring in the pinch—(1) Kruse's 20 shots from center to give Palatine their victory over Arlington. Kruse also scored in the overtime against Leyden. (2) Madden's two baskets in overtime to beat Warren in semi-final. (3) Kossack of Leyden who scored in last 30 seconds to tie Palatine and then scored another goal in overtime.
10. Most evenly distributed team scoring—Libertyville with Madden 21, Isaacson 16, Jaeger 15, Sticks 11, Brown 11 and Worthen 10.
11. Player scoring largest percentage of team's points—Steffenberg of Antioch made 8 out of team's 11 points in Warren game.
12. Poorest free throwing—Warren's 1 out of 11 in Antioch game.
13. Greatest first half advantage—Warren 20, Wauconda 6.
14. Most surprising team performance—Warren in north section and Ela in south section.
15. Best defensive work—Palatine holding Arlington to two field goals. Warren holding Antioch to two field goals. Both teams used zone defenses.
16. Most fouls in an evening—70 called on 4 teams in final games.

Bronco's Consolation

Barrington has one consolation in dropping out of the tourney in the first round in that they are better prepared to meet tough opposition in their remaining games. They have a distinct advantage over Leyden tonight for the Eagles had four close tournament games last week.

The lightweights showed the

LIBERTYVILLE TEAMS WIN IN TOURNEY

SUPERIORITY AT BASKET WINS FINAL

Third Meet Trophy in 5 Years Won by 36-29 Victory of Wildcats.

Libertyville won the Northwest Conference tournament championship for the third time in the last five years when they whipped Leyden 36 to 29 in the final on the Wildcat court last Saturday night. Libertyville had previously nosed out Barrington 21 to 19 in the second round and Warren 27 to 23 in the semi-finals.

Superior basket shooting carried Libertyville to victory in the final. The team coached by Jack Martin shot 13 baskets out of 46 attempts and sank 10 out of 15 free throws in downing the Eagles. Six Wildcats scored 3 or more points with Jaeger topping the list with 10 counts.

The outstanding star of the final game was Matussek of the winners. The Leyden ace scored three field goals and five out of five free throws to lead all the scorers with 11 points. His under the basket play on offense and all around good work stamped him as the outstanding player of the 1935 tournament. Matussek scored 35 points in four tournament games. Leyden made but 8 baskets in 55 shots, but dropped 13 out of 18 free tries.

Leyden lost the ball game in the second quarter. The first period ended 8-7 in favor of Libertyville, but Williams and Matussek committed five fouls between them and in an effort to save them for the last half Coach Watson substituted for them in the second quarter. Just before the half Libertyville ran a count of 15 to 14 up to 22 to 15 on fine work by Madden, Sticks, and Brown.

The last half found Leyden trying desperately to overcome the seven point lead. Matussek scored 7 points on the rally, but Libertyville with Jaeger leading the attack matched the Eagles point for point. Matussek was finally lost on fouls.

The third period ended 30 to 21, Williams, diminutive Leyden captain, had 10 shots without a single one registering in the last half. Libertyville, noted for the competitive spirit of their teams, came through the tournament not alone because they have players of ability but because their team plays best when the competition is keenest.

Overtime Battles

Feature Semi-Finals

Overtime battles featured the semi-finals. Leyden won 18 to 16 over Megal's Palatine Pirates in an extra period after Kossack's basket tied the score just before the final gun. Palatine led 8 to 6 at the half and 9 to 6 starting the last period. The score was tied at 14 at the end of the regular playing period. In overtime Kruse scored for the Pirates, but Kossack dropped in a field goal and Kadon and Matussek made good on free throws. Palatine made 6 out of 32 shots from the field and Leyden 6 out of 53.

Warren led Libertyville through the game until the final minute when Worthen's basket tied the count at 23-23. In the overtime Madden scored twice to give Libertyville a 27 to 23 victory.

Warren's play upset the dope as Libertyville had previously doubled the count on them in a conference game. Accurate shooting by Dixon who accumulated 12 points and by Phillips gave Warren a lead at the start which they held until the finish. The count was 8-3 at the quarter, 14-12 at the half and 22 to 20 at the three quarter mark with Warren in front. Libertyville was completely out of form in basket shooting. They took at least three times the number of shots attempted by Warren. This game as well way in tournament scoring. Murphy of Libertyville made 16 points in the final while Foster of Palatine had 14 against Leyden and 12 in the Libertyville game. It looks like both Palatine and Libertyville have some classy material coming up to keep their heavyweight teams of the next couple of years in the running. And don't forget Leyden in this connection with a swell lightweight team.

Speaking of Players

It is not the practice of the conference to allow an all tournament team to be selected and we are not going to attempt that. However in our opinion the two best all round players in the tournament in value to their respective teams were Matussek of Leyden and Zimmerman of Warren. We could not say too much about the merits of this pair, each the spark plug of his team and a man who thrives on keen competition.

This boy Nehmer who plays guard for Ela is one of the best players in the conference. He is a whiz on a fast break and a fine guard. The Ela team has shown great improvement since last year and their playing indicates good coaching. The Ela team gave Leyden a real scare and might have beaten the Eagles had they compiled an average shooting percentage.

Junior League's Standings Unchanged In Past Week

Standings in the Junior High School league remain unchanged this week, with Dundee holding first place in the top division by virtue of two more victories, and Arlington Heights leading the second division after another successful game.

Dundee defeated Palatine's first team 28-9, and downed Cary's regulars 30-9 during the past week. Dundee's seconds won 16-11 from Cary. Arlington's lights won 21-15 from Woodstock, and their first team 20-16 from the same school.

Barrington and Crystal Lake teams did not play. Palatine's first team lost 9-8 to Woodstock in the first of their two games since last Friday, and their second team was swamped 16-2 by the Woodstock boys. Palatine seconds lost to Algonquin 25-1 Tuesday night.

as the Palatine-Leyden game was marked by rough playing.

Two Close Games At Palatine

Ela put up a whale of a fight against Leyden in the second round before succumbing 24-18 at Palatine. The blue clad Lake Zurich boys outplayed their opponents in the first half and despite an inability to pierce the hoop, trailed by a point at the half when the score stood 10-9.

In the second game on the same floor, Palatine defeated Arlington Heights 14-13. The score was tied four times, and there never was more than 4 points difference between the tallies of the contestants. Palatine was behind 7-6 at the half. A pair of long shots by Kruse from the center of the floor took the lead in the last few minutes of play.

Warren, 'Cats Win at Antioch

Libertyville stepped by the obstacle which loomed greatest in their tournament path when they defeated Barrington 21 to 19 in the second round. The Wildcats led 15 to 10 at the half, and won the game on free throws as they scored one less field goal than the losers. Barrington lost both their regular guards on fouls. Conn was high scorer of the game with 8 points.

Warren scored an unexpected upset of Antioch 13 to 11 for their second tournament victory and the right to meet Libertyville in the semi-finals. The Blue Devils led by Zimmerman's three field goals made a gallant comeback to win after Antioch had piled up an early lead of 9-2 in the first five minutes. Steffenberg who was lost on fouls scored 8 of Antioch's 11 points. Antioch, playing a slow cautious game had the ball nearly all the time but found Warren's tight zone defense so baffling that only two field goals were scored.

WARREN FIVE WINS TILT AT BENSENVILLE

32-28 Victory Climaxes Game Tied at First and Third Quarters.

Warren's Blue Devils won their first conference victory Tuesday night at Bensenville when they defeated the Bensenville Bisons 32-28. The Bensenville lights won 28-10. Zimmerman, Warren's star, scored 19 points.

The game was close fought, but the Warren five, fresh from a fine showing in the conference tournament last week, came through ahead. At the end of the first quarter the score was tied 11-11. At the half time Warren was ahead 23-19, but Bensenville again drew abreast by the end of the third quarter and tied the score 25-25.

The game was a make-up postponed from January 18 because of icy roads that night. Lowing of the Bensenville lights was high man in his game with 10 points.

St. James Teams Win in C. Y. O. Game

St. James lights and heavies scored another double victory Sunday at St. Hedwig's gym in Niles. The lightweights got off to a slow start against Immaculate Conception, but rallied in the second quarter to gain a 12 point margin. O'Hagan's five baskets, all well-earned short shots, enabled him to lead the team in scoring, and his all-round play was equally outstanding.

The heavyweights beat St. Hedwig's for the second time this season with the score 33-18. Within five minutes after the second half opened the Arlington boys, passing beautifully and following up all of their shots, had gained a secure edge. From there on they matched St. Hedwig's point for point, and were in the midst of another rally at the close of the game.

undisputed championship. A victory for Barrington will still give the Palatine five an opportunity to tie for the title if they defeat the Broncos tonight.

The last time Leyden and Barrington met the Eagles led all the way until a pair of last minute baskets by Mollenkamp saved the night for the Broncos with a 23-21 victory. In tonight's contest Leyden will have the help of Kadon, tall guard who was sick at the time of the first game, and also of Chapp, lanky reserve forward, ineligible during the first semester.

Palatine's Pirates will play at home against Warren after a series of games on the road. In their first meeting Palatine won a 29-21 victory after a 20-6 lead at the half.

However, the Blue Devils, after their great showing in the tournament, may play a different kind of ball than they did the first half of the season, and after viewing the battle Libertyville had to win from the scrappy Gurnee quintet, the Pirates will do well to put an extra keen edge on their sabres before going on deck to engage their Warren visitors tonight.

Bensenville's newly christened Bisons come to Arlington where they'll try to trample the Cardinals. In their previous meeting the Cardinals won, 29-23, by a last quarter rally after the score had been tied 23-23 when the third period ended.

Ela goes to Antioch. When they last met, Antioch won, 23-16, in a last quarter rally. Ela led until the final quarter. Wauconda goes to Libertyville. Last time Libertyville won 24-20 with Sticks counting 13 points.

Blue Aces Win 34-38 In Overtime Game

Playing into an overtime period, the Arlington Blue Aces defeated a colored Y. M. C. A. team from Evanston 34-38 at Arlington Heights Tuesday night. Stefanik scored a pair of under the basket shots in the overtime to give his team the victory.

English of the colored boys tied the score 34-34 as the game ended after he and Walter had brought his team up after trailing 22-17 at the half. Each of these players scored 10 points. Stefanik and Brodnan of the Aces scored 8 points each. A large crowd saw the game.

Aces Down 'Y' Boys 45-21 at Arlington

A 45-21 victory was won by the Arlington White Aces playing an Evanston colored Y. M. C. A. team Tuesday night. Steve Brodnan led his team in offense and defense and scored six field goals. Cooper of the visitors kept his team in the running by scoring three field goals and three free throws.

The visitors tossed in 11 of 14 free throws and five field goals, while the Aces made only 9 of 13 free throws, but counted with 19 field goals. Arlington got away to a 11-1 lead early in the game, but the visitors came to 10-13 at the half.

Two Tourneys Coming

Two tournaments for suburban basketball teams will be held next month. March 1 and 2 girls teams will meet in a tourney in the Abraham Lincoln grade school in Park Ridge, and March 14, 15, and 16 boys fives will meet on the same floor.

KITTY KLEIN of Buffalo National outdoor woman's skating champ, 19-year old brunette who had no difficulty in defeating opponents in the All-Star skating carnival at the Medinah country club Sunday. A crowd of 5,000 persons saw the meet, which is to be an annual event.

Undeclared Suburban Loop Leaders Will Meet Tomorrow

Skokie Valley OCC camp five and the Des Plaines Publishers will meet tomorrow night in a game which will decide the leadership of the Suburban League. Neither team has been defeated, and this, the final game of the first round of the league series, will decide the first round championship.

The game will be played at 8:30 o'clock on the Abraham Lincoln grade school floor in Park Ridge where all the games of the league are played.

Last week Skokie Valley defeated Downers Grove 33-27. Des Plaines defeated Maywood 21-16, and Bensenville downed Franklin Park 23-17. The Palatine-Park Ridge game was postponed without a date being set.

This week's games for Thursday night play are Downers Grove versus Bensenville, Park Ridge and Maywood, and Franklin Park and Maywood. A meeting scheduled for Thursday night was also to decide upon whether the second half of the league's schedule should be played as planned.

Pickwick Girls Double Score on Arlington

In an uninteresting game at Park Ridge, the Arlington Heights C. A. C. girls' team lost 14-7 to the Pickwick girls. A lone basket by Diederich, Arlington center, and five free throws, were the total of Arlington's scoring. The Pickwick girls scored seven field goals and no free throws. A. Ronde, forward, counted for three, Ryan, center for two.

"Bennie" Diederich played her usual game for the C. A. C., but had little support. Tonight the Arlington Heights girls play at St. John's, LaVerne and Montrose streets, Chicago.

Badgers Resume Play

After an enforced idleness of two weeks due to first semester examinations, the University of Wisconsin basketball squad resumed training this week and goes into action against the DePaul collegians tomorrow night. Next Monday night they play Chicago's Maroons.

Third Game Added

A third game has been added to tonight's bill in the Palatine gym. Following the two games between the Palatine and Warren high school fives, the Palatine town team will play a Dundee town team.

Libertyville Won Tourneys in '31, '32, Arlington Last Year

Libertyville, winner of this year's conference tournament, also won in 1931 and again in the holiday tournament of 1932. Last year the conference meet was won by Arlington Heights with Warren as runner-up.

Antioch won the first four tournaments in 1927, 1928, 1929, and 1930. Arlington was runner-up in 1927 and 1929, Warren in 1928, and Bensenville in 1930. In 1931 when Libertyville won their first tourney Arlington was again runner-up.

Two meets were held in 1932, the regular session with Antioch as winner and Libertyville second, and the holiday meet with Libertyville winning and Leyden second.

LOCAL MEN ATTEND I.A.A. CONVENTION

Cook County Farm Bureau President, Advisor, Asst. Among Group

Cook county agriculture was represented at the annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural Association in Quincy last week by Harry Adair of Chicago Heights, president of the Cook County Farm Bureau; O. G. Barrett and M. E. Tascher, farm adviser and assistant; C. H. Mills, county organization director; E. A. Carncross, director of insurance; three farm bureau delegates, Dan Bergman of Palatine, F. L. Horn of Leyden township, and Carl Bormet of Tinley Park; D. A. Niefeldt of Homewood, ex-president of the farm bureau; also Henry Govecke of Leyden, Homer Lone of Moline, Joseph Brooks of Niles, Louis Polman of Elk Grove, Alfred Landmeier of Elk Grove, Fred Porep of Palatine; and Earl Siensen of Bremen who represented the northeast district of Illinois as the winner in the Skilled Drivers' club.

The convention was the largest yet held. Quincy's facilities for care of the group were overtaxed. The auditorium of the high school was insufficient to seat all those in attendance. The convention was an expression of the year's success of the Illinois Agricultural association.

"Nineteen hundred thirty-four will be recorded in history as one of the most eventful years of the present generation. This is true as affecting individuals, institutions and government," said Earl C. Smith, president of the I. A. A. "We have witnessed slow but steady progress from the depths of the depression reached in 1933," he said. "Our continued rise to equality of opportunity for all will largely depend upon the patience, the courage and the determination of all citizens, but more particularly upon those engaged in America's basic and most important industry."

"While not yet reaching its goal, the national farm program directed toward the improvement of farm conditions, which was largely initiated and aggressively supported by the farm bureaus of state and nation, has been the most potent factor of all government activities in starting the wheels of national recovery."

The new Buick cars are also a sensation of the automotive world. Buick cars are too well known to need a great deal of comment.

Their policies of fair dealing and courtesy during the past twenty-three years in business have made them one of the most favored automobile agencies in this part of the state.

After the sale of a new car they do not consider the deal as completed until the customer is satisfied, as they have the welfare of their patron at heart and they see to it that this new car is right in every possible way.

When you have your car serviced by them you can feel sure it will come out of their shop in perfect condition, whether it is an old car or a new car, and that the mechanic who has done your work has had years of practical experience. Their work shop is equipped with the best machinery to turn out a first class job, and you will be given prompt service, shown real courtesy and only charged a reasonable price.

In this review of business firms of Park Ridge, Wm. Busse & Son, Inc., can be unhesitatingly commended for their reputation as business men and as community boosters.

The Manos Restaurant

Park Ridge's favorite eating place at 100 Main St., corner Fairview, serves the best of foods, dinners, lunches, steaks and chops. Soda fountain service. Nick J. Manos, Prop.

This cafe is one of the most popular in this part of the county and it merits the large patronage it receives, for it is one of the cleanest and most sanitary—serving the palatable foods to be found anywhere. It is very popular with the people of Park Ridge and the surrounding territory.

This cafe has gained a name that has spread far and wide as a place where the public can more than satisfy their demands in the matter of obtaining good food. The menu not only consists of the prime necessities of life, but many delicacies are offered that are tempting to the taste of the most fastidious appetite.

Cleanliness is one of the outstanding features of this modern place, and this is not confined to the tables alone, but goes into the kitchen where all dishes and utensils are thoroughly washed and sterilized.

The service is equally satisfactory whether your order be large or small as the owner, Nick Manos, and his assistants make you feel at home and that your patronage is desired and appreciated.

In conclusion let us say that nowhere will you find better food, finer service and more reasonable prices than you will there. Among the most pleasant surroundings you are served with the best. This is an entirely different kind of a place. A dinner there will be one long to be remembered.

Under the direction of an experienced lumber man, this well known and reliable concern with an enviable record of years in business in this line is a concern which has built a reputation as one of the leaders in the lumber industry in this part of the state in quality, price and service.

One of the essential features of any house, store or other structure is that it will stand the wear of years. The same is true of the reputation of any business firm, and that is why this concern enjoys an ever increasing volume of business and popularity.

On account of their large buying power they are able to enter the world's largest markets and secure vast quantities at prices so low they can offer the local people as astounding values in lumber and building supplies of every description.

The contractors, builders, and the people in general have come to know that they can depend on this well known firm for just about everything in the lumber, building material, roofing and supplies. They are at all times pleased to be of practical assistance to anyone contemplating building or remodeling. They are in a position to furnish estimates and give good advice and sound counsel free of cost.

The reputation they have gained for stock of quality and fair dealing is bringing thousands of dollars to our territory that would go elsewhere were this reliable firm not located in our midst.

We suggest that if you are in need of anything in their line that you get in touch with them as we can assure you of quality materials, courteous service and fair prices. It is truly a pleasure to refer their activities.

Confidential Loan Service, Inc.

With office in Park Ridge at 100 S. Prospect Ave., makes loans to responsible parties on automobiles, furniture, livestock and salaries. All transactions strictly confidential. Legal rates. Under state supervision. Telephone Park Ridge 1338.

This well known and reliable concern serving the entire Northwest district constitutes one of the important factors of this community. It is one of the leading institutions of its kind in this part of Cook county.

This institution enables people who can meet small monthly payments to obtain a loan on their personal belongings or salaries, without red tape or inquiries being made from their employers or friends. In fact all transactions with this concern are treated in confidence.

Any business or profession which renders such a valuable service to the community is bound to progress with the community it serves so faithfully. This is quite true with this institution, so well are they serving the public that they have provided for every convenience for their customers.

They will gladly arrange a loan of any amount from fifty to three hundred dollars on your car, household goods, livestock or salary. Their rates are reasonable as the charge only the legal rate provided by the state. You pay interest only for the actual time you have a loan with them.

In conclusion let us state that their representative will be glad to call on you and explain in detail their method of making loans. We can assure you that any transactions with them will be entirely satisfactory.

Rose - Marie Frocks

Park Ridge's popular ladies' shop at 23 S. Prospect Ave., features stylish and distinctive wearing apparel at moderate prices. Price and quality on every purchase at this shop.

To meet the demands of the women of any community with apparel that is distinctive and serviceable is one thing—to meet this demand with quality and price is still another. The Rose Marie Frocks does both. For this reason this local enterprising shop is very popular with the best dressed women of this community.

Here they feel sure they can find exactly what they want at prices they can afford to pay.

Regardless of whether you come prepared to make a purchase—or whether you are just looking for something that becomes you—you will find the same eager, earnest desire to render you the most courteous and efficient service possible.

Price, quality and service are the features upon which this shop was founded and while the latest edicts of fashion in feminine attire are found there earliest, the prices are always very reasonable.

It is needless to say that a store serving the public so efficiently is a decided asset to the community. The very principles and policies are due proof of the integrity of the owners and those in charge.

In conclusion, let us suggest that you pay this popular shop a visit on your next trip to Park Ridge as we feel sure they will be able to please you.

Fred I. Gillick

With office in the Park Ridge building and Loan Assn., at 122 Main St., Park Ridge. Features a complete Real Estate and Insurance Service. Fire, Tornado, Burglary, Auto, Liability and Household Insurance. Property Management. Operate Building and Loan Assn., and the Park Ridge Currency Exchange. Phone Park Ridge 777.

It is a well known fact that the necessities for a successfully operated real estate business are those of experience in good values and a good judgment. Such important matters of real estate require a great deal of consideration and study. It is considered a good policy never to enter a real estate transaction of any sort until after you have carefully considered and investigated the proposed deal carefully. There is no one more able and willing to co-operate in this line than Fred I. Gillick, who has been established for over thirty-three years.

Regardless of the nature of your visit to Mr. Gillick you are assured of receiving the most satisfactory service and whether you wish to buy, trade or sell, this Agency will be of great value to you in the proposed transaction. Here is an Agency of long years of experience who might well be termed experts in their line because of their knowledge in the field and the manner in which they conduct their business.

In the matter of listing your property it will be found that there is no more reliable Agency than this one to handle the deal, because they are continually in touch with buyers who are ready to buy and who have the money. In the matter of real estate investments we would urge that you visit this establishment where you are sure to find a large list of good town and suburban resident properties which are truly offered at attractive prices. Their service covers every phase of the work, so do not hesitate to call upon them at any time.

Mr. Gillick also features all forms of insurance and will obtain for you—a policy best fitted for your needs. He is a man worthy of the fullest consideration when insurance or real estate is brought to mind.

The Pickwick Recreation

Located in Park Ridge Pickwick Court, Pickwick Theatre Bldg., have modern equipped bowling alleys, where both ladies and men enjoy bowling, a most healthful sport.

Not everyone realizes that bowling is a healthful and pleasant exercise with all the requirements of a good clean sport. It has been said that bowling is America's passport to health.

The Pickwick have equipped their establishment to meet all the requirements of the game. They have invested much money and time in selecting their alleys and furnishing and have an up to date establishment where both old and young alike meet for recreation. Many ladies will tell you of their thrilling experiences after a visit there.

Bowling is one of the most popular indoor sports known. It is played and enjoyed by both sexes and its popularity is perhaps due to the fact that it isn't an expensive sport.

Much care is taken to keep their alleys and equipment in the best of condition. They will gladly instruct you in the game so if you are not familiar, get your friends together, make an appointment and spend an evening or afternoon at the Pickwick Recreation parlors.

Bowling is truly an intensely interesting game of skill, the unexpected is continually happening. It is a game of accuracy and a strong, develops a quick mind. There is always a combination to solve.

It's a real pleasure to compliment those in charge of these alleys upon the high class entertainment they offer the public.

Nilles Oil Co.

With headquarters in Orchard Place, owned and operated by A. W. Nilles of Park Ridge, are distributors of high grade fuel oil, suitable for every burner. Phones Park Ridge 1223, Des Plaines 909.

This well known and reliable firm specializes in the sale and distribution of the better grade of fuel oils. The Nilles Oil Co. supplies a large territory and has become one of the foremost fuel oil companies in this part of the county.

By reason of their satisfactory service their business is increasing and it is well merited by them.

They maintain a motor truck service which daily covers the district on schedule time making deliveries to both large and small. It matters not whether you phone for 1,000 or only 25 gallons, you are accorded the same courteous and accommodating service.

The management is composed of men of broad experience and know the fuel oil business from A to Z. You can rely on what they tell you about the best grade of fuel oil for your burner.

This company's station equipment and trucks represent a large outlay of money and was made with the idea of giving the public a service unexcelled. All of their trucks are equipped with certified meters assuring their customers the correct amount of quality fuel oil. It is not surprising then that a business conducted along these lines should grow.

A. W. Nilles, the owner, has the interest of this community at heart and in this business review, embracing as it does the outstanding features of this community, due mention should be given his activities.

His best advertisement and greatest asset is his army of satisfied customers, due to his superior products and a service of par excellence.

Farm Co-ops Pay 1,000,000 In Refunds

EARL C. SMITH GIVES FIGURES OF PAST YEAR

Farm Supply Dividend
Averaged $22.50 for
Each Member

More than a million dollars in patronage refunds has returned in 1934 to farm bureau members of Illinois by the farmer's co-operatives in the fields of marketing, purchasing, and insurance. The success of these organizations, developed, organized, financed, controlled, and directed by the farm bureaus and the Illinois Agricultural association, was discussed at the I. A. A. meeting in Quincy last week by Earl C. Smith, president of the association.

These co-operative organizations include the Illinois Farm Supply Company, the Illinois Farm Bureau Agricultural Holding Company, the Illinois Grain corporation, the Soybean Marketing association, Illinois Creameries incorporated, the Country Life insurance company, the Illinois Agricultural Mutual insurance company, the Farmers Mutual Reinsurance company, and the Illinois Agricultural Auditing association.

With the exception of the Soybean Marketing association, which has had peculiar problems since its organization, each company is without debt of any kind, has its capital intact, and has added substantially to its surplus after meeting all dividend requirements.

An average dividend of $22.50 per farm bureau member, a total of $630,000, was paid last year by the Farm Supply company. Forty-seven million gallons of petroleum products, the equivalent of a trainload per business day, were handled by the company.

At the close of 1934 the Farmers Mutual Reinsurance company policies in force totaled $96,340,000, a 66 per cent gain over the previous year. The Country Life insurance company showed a gain of $12,000,000 to make its total policies more than $66,000,000. The Agricultural Mutual Insurance company received 9,333 applications for auto insurance during 1934, more than in any previous year.

Illinois Producers Creameries incorporated operates five plants located at Bloomington, Moline, Peoria, Champaign, and Olney, with the last two organized during recent months. In 1934 they churned and marketed 3,576,000 pounds of butter, a 94 per cent gain over the previous 12 months period, and the three creameries in operation more than a year returned patronage refunds of $43,232.

Stock and cash dividends totaling $27,735 were paid by the Illinois Grain corporation during the year, and at the close of 1934 found the corporation with 27 additional elevator and grain association members. The 175 member units sold $431 carloads, a total of about thirteen and one half million bushels, of grain through the Farmers National Grain corporation.

ABOUT POULTRY

By A. A. Paltz

Quality in Baby Chicks
The trend today in the poultry industry is toward grading chicks on the basis of breeding and health quality.

To illustrate: Two boxes of baby chicks may have about the same appearance if carefully selected and well hatched, but there may be a tremendous difference in their breeding and health quality which cannot be judged from their appearance.

Thus, when the chicks are grown and placed in the laying house one group proves to be exceptionally fine egg producers while the other group lay indifferently. The difference is in breeding.

Likewise, one group of chicks may be vigorous and very few losses result while a larger percentage of the other group are lost during the brooding season and again in the laying house.

Needless to say, the group of chicks which had the better breeding, both for egg production and for the livability factor, was the most economical.

Good quality chicks can be produced in fairly large quantities by the hatcheryman who uses pedigreed males from carefully selected high producing strains, to head his flocks.

But not all high producing strains are high livability strains. Both of these factors depend upon the breeder himself. So it is up to the hatcheryman to use great care in the selection of the strains which he uses for flock improvement purposes.

In this connection, the quality hatcheryman is in a fine position to do a good job of selection. Because of his experience with many strains of poultry and because he makes extensive purchases of improvement bloodlines he can obtain good improvement stock at a reasonable price.

Also the quality hatcheryman uses this well bred stock to the best possible advantage because he hatches chicks from it for a long season. The price of good stock is therefore spread out over a large volume of chicks and the extra cost per chick is very small.

In this way, a quality hatcheryman can render an extra service to chick buyers because he can supply them with high quality chicks at a far more reasonable price than they can produce the same high quality for themselves.

In the same way, he can test his breeding stock for pullorum disease (B.W.D.)—select his stock for "healthy" appearance, good type, body, weight and color.

If all of these services were performed on one small flock, the cost would be unreasonably high. Furthermore, if only a few hundred chicks were hatched from such flocks the expense per chick would be unreasonable.

But again the hatcheryman hatches from such a flock for a long season and also handles all work on a volume basis so he keeps his cost per chick down.

In buying your baby chicks for the 1935 season it will pay you to inquire into the breeding and health program in use by the hatcheryman from whom you buy. The price per chick is important to you but a reasonable price plus good all-around quality chicks is your most economical purchase.

Poultry Prospects Favorable for 1935 Says U. of I. Expert

By A. A. Paltz

Prospects are favorable for a good poultry income in 1935, but the flock owner who is looking for "easy money" may be disappointed, according to H. H. Alp, poultry extension specialist at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. Only efficient producers can hope to make the most of present prospects, he said.

"Those who can retain and feed their layers will be in the strongest position to take advantage of the favorable outlook. The high price and scarcity of grain is forcing a drastic reduction in numbers of livestock, including poultry, especially in the badly damaged drought areas. Supplies of both eggs and poultry will be relatively short until next summer when chickens of 1935 hatchings begin to affect supplies. Prices of poultry products may be expected to continue at seasonably high levels until that time.

BOYS WALK ON ROAD, HIT, ONE DEAD, PAL HURT

Third Arlington Heights Youth Unscathed in Sun- day Night Accident

Walking on the wrong side of the road brought death to an Arlington Heights boy, serious injury to a second, and a narrow escape to the third of a group last Sunday night. Vernon Sebastian, 19 years old, of 209 South Dunton avenue, Arlington Heights, died in the Mt. Prospect hospital Monday night of injuries sustained in the accident. Frank Mertes, whose home is on State road, north of Arlington Heights, is a patient in the hospital suffering from a cut head and bruises. Harry Helfers, 8 South Dunton street, Arlington Heights, is the unhurt member of the party.

The boys were on their way to the Arlington ballroom, on Higgins road near Arlington Heights road, when the death occurred. They were walking westward on the north side of the pavement with their backs to oncoming traffic. Dark clothes helped to make them hard to distinguish in the night. Helfers was walking at the edge of the pavement, the other two on it.

They were struck by an auto driven by Norman Schultz, 1301 Touhy avenue, Park Ridge, who was absolved of all blame at an inquest held in the hospital in Mt. Prospect Tuesday morning. Schultz and his passengers, Kenneth Nieder, 1001 Touhy avenue, Park Ridge, and Miss Aileen Clavey, 929 Prairie street, Park Ridge, testified that they were unseen until the auto was almost upon them.

Sending the girl in to the ballroom, Schultz and Nieder with Helfers took the injured boys to the hospital despite the fact that the crash had put the lights of Schultz's auto out of commission. Sebastian did not recover consciousness. Death was the result of shock and hemorrhage due to fracture. Mertes was thrown into a ditch and was unconscious until the following morning.

Funeral services for Vernon Sebastian were held yesterday afternoon in the Lutheran and Oehler chapel and the St. John's Evangelical church in Arlington Heights with the Rev. M. L. Straube officiating. Burial was in Elk Grove cemetery.

He was employed in the Arlington Heights post office as special delivery messenger and lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Helfers. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Lillian Adam, 201 South Dunton street, Arlington Heights; a brother, Lawrence Sebastian; and two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Siwick of Chicago and Miss Ruth Sebastian of Arlington Heights. He was born in Des Plaines January 30, 1916.

Members of the coroner's jury which returned a verdict of accidental death were Arno P. Schramm, 307 South Emerson street, Mt. Prospect, engraver; Corlis D. Fosdick, 100 Edward street, Mt. Prospect, unemployed; Lawrence E. Hodges, 123 School street, Mt. Prospect, postmaster; Edwin Haerkamp, Elmhurst road, florist; Alfred Wendt, 20 Prospect avenue, Mt. Prospect, cement worker; and Fred Naser, 2706 Lawton avenue, Chicago, chauffeur. The quiz was conducted by Sal J. Oliviero, deputy coroner.

SERVICEMAN INJURED

The loosening of the rim from an auto wheel caused a serious injury Saturday evening to Harvey Henth, 16 East Northwest highway, Arlington Heights. The end of the spring metal cut him on the side of the head narrowly missing eye and temple.

Page Papa Dione; He Ought To Be in Arlington Friday

This Friday night is to be "Family Night" at Arlington Heights ballroom. Each year some special night has been set aside as a special night. A real bargain is offered this time. Not only should the Bensenville game in itself be a headliner, but there is to be dancing afterwards to the music of Earl Fredericks orchestra. In line with the "Family Night" feature an entire family is to be admitted for a single price of 35 cents. No matter how many there are in the family, all will be admitted for the one price—father, mother and as many children as there are.

The first Bensenville game before Christmas was a bummer. Arlington won by a narrow margin with a last quarter rally. Those who have seen the last few games Arlington has played know that they are on the upgrade. Bensenville, too, has developed into a beautiful passing team and have shown unexpected scoring ability in their recent games. They possess a pair of real basketgetters in Jennings and Pilgrim. Freeman at guard also has been scoring a lot all year. All they have need to be a real team is a little more size. Anyone staying away because it

Mr. and Mrs. Moehling Married Sixty Years

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Moehling, who reside at the corner of Dunton and Miner street in Arlington Heights, Ill., received a beautiful basket of flowers for their sixtieth wedding anniversary on January 28, 1935. Mr. and Mrs. Moehling were married sixty years ago at the Immanuel Lutheran church in Des Plaines, Ill.

Will Move to Mt. Prospect
They will retire in the near future to a new home which is now under construction at the south end of Main street in Mt. Prospect, built by their son, John, where they may live in quiet and contentment for the remainder of their lives. God willing. Congratulations.

FORM COUNTY FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION

To Ask State Department for Yearly School in Cook County

Starting with the idea of greater co-operation between the fire departments of the northwest towns, the formation of a Cook County Firemen's Association was recently completed and recognition of the association by the state fire marshal's office is to be sought.

If the latter is obtained an effort is to be made to have the state establish a fire tower in the northern part of Cook county where yearly firemen schools can be held under state supervision. At the present time, any firemen desiring to attend such a school must go to Springfield.

Temporary officers have been selected with Joe Boentredder, chief of Des Plaines Dept., as president and Wesley Comfort of Palatine, as vice-president.

Arlington Heights Firemen to Be Given Local Vehicle Tags

The members of the Arlington Heights Fire Department will hereafter be given their village vehicle tag upon application without cost. Following in the footsteps of Des Plaines where similar action was taken recently, the Arlington Heights board voted the free tags Monday night.

Stone Contract Awarded Arlington Elevator and Coal Company

The Arlington Heights village board, Monday night, awarded the stone contract for the resurfacing of Foundry road, to Arlington Elevator & Coal Co. When bids were opened upon this job the prices of all firms were alike and the award was a matter of choice. A previous contract under practically the same conditions had been awarded to Tibbits-Cameron Lumber Co.

Elroy Winkelman Is At South Bend Factory

At the visit of the editor to the Winkelman The and Bakery Shop, this week, he found that Elroy is gone for two weeks. He is taking factory training in bend work at the South Bend factory of that firm. Elroy is never satisfied in any branch that he takes up with less than becoming an expert in that particular field.

STYLE SHOW COMING

The American Legion auxiliary are planning on holding a style show some time before Easter. Time, date and place to be announced as soon as arrangements are completed.

BIRTHDAY WEEK OF BOY SCOUTS BEGINS TONIGHT

President Will Speak; Local Boys Gather at Meeting Place

President Franklin D. Roosevelt will broadcast a special message to Boy Scouts of the nation tonight on the occasion of the opening of Boy Scout Anniversary week in observance of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the organization. The 15 minute broadcast carried over both national chains will start at 7:45 o'clock. Walter W. Head, president of the Boy Scouts of America, will open the broadcast from the scene of the Boy Scout circus in St. Louis, Mo.

President Roosevelt will speak direct from the White House. Other national leaders will also participate. One feature of the program will be the simultaneous repetition of the Boy Scout pledge by Scouts throughout the entire country that are listening to the broadcast.

All Scouts of the Northwest Suburban Area are expected to assemble at their meeting places or other points with their parents and members of sponsoring organizations to participate in the program. Other features of the evening will include the lighting of candles on the birthday cake as a brief review of the 25 years of Scouting is given. Demonstrations and other activities will occupy the balance of the evening's program.

Beginning with this evening's event and continuing for the next 10 days the Boy Scouts of the area will be most active in their observance. Tomorrow the Scouts will participate in troop and district good turn activities, hikes, demonstrations and similar features. Many of the churches are planning special Boy Scout services for Sunday, which is National Scout Sunday.

Scouts and their leaders will attend services in uniform and in many instances groups will attend in a body and participate in special services arranged for the occasion. Monday, fitting recognition will be given to Scouting in the schools and Tuesday, many of the districts and troops are planning hikes to points of interest in or about the Northwest Suburban area.

Although anniversary week will officially close February 14, the special Boy Scout mobilization being planned for local Scouts next Saturday, will complete the week's program. All of the Scouts in the entire area are to be assembled in Park Ridge between 9:30 and 10 o'clock Saturday morning. A special Boy Scout program has been arranged in the Pickwick theatre starting at 10 o'clock.

Upon the completion of this program the entire group will hike to the Maine township high school where they will participate in a program lasting throughout the afternoon. Every boy will have an opportunity to swim in Maine's fine tank and enjoy various recreational, educational and instructive features that have been arranged. This day's activity is not limited to Scouts, but are open to all boys of Scout age, and those wishing to participate in the whole program should bring their lunch and a towel with them.

I. C. C. Engineer Visits Palatine Death Crossings; Board is Told of Hearing

Palatine's railway crossings were investigated last Saturday by an engineer from the Illinois Commerce commission, who was accompanied by a Chicago and North Western railway engineer and a third man. Considerable attention was given to the three main crossings, Chicago avenue, Broadway street, and Bothwell-Slade streets. On these three crossings have occurred in the past five years. They will be the subject of further study and thought by the engineer, according to a report made to the village board's meeting Monday night by Lester J. Steinbrink, chairman of the special citizen's committee on crossing safety.

Mr. Steinbrink told the board of the hearing held last week. E. F. Steinbrink, village clerk, read a letter setting the date for the second of the previous day as first instead of the previous day as first. Henry J. Harz, village attorney, who was absent from the board's meeting, was criticized by the board members for "not showing up" at the hearing.

Cartoonist Confesses To Arlington Lions Club Why He Killed "Jean"

Chester Gould, the originator of Dick Tracy, Junior and late Jean Penfield, told some "shop" secrets to the Arlington Heights Lions club Tuesday evening, among them why he "killed off" Jean Penfield, one of the characters of his comic strip that appears in the Chicago Tribune and 115 other daily newspapers. Mr. Gould had manufactured "Jean" out of the air, only to learn after the character had become part of the Dick Tracy story that there was a Jean Penfield in real life, residing in New York, who objected very much to the use of her name.

It was easier to allow the underworld bandits to kill Jean in the story than to "settle" with the New York woman whose name appears in "Who's Who."

There are many other difficulties that are experienced by a producer of a comic strip and Mr. Gould told a number of them to the Lions who hereafter read the strip with increased interest because of the contact between them and the author that was formed at the weekly dinner and meeting of the Lions club this week.

Mr. Gould answered a lot of questions that evening, among them why he does not give Junior a hair cut, why his characters do not change their clothes, etc.

Mr. Gould explained that his real purpose in starting the strip was to tell in pictures that a life of crime does not pay. Incidents in the life of Dick Tracy and fellow characters are taken out of the front page news of the day.

Pop Comes The Measles

A small epidemic of German measles in Arlington Heights has now reached the southside school. Starting at the Catholic school, the disease next appeared at the northside public school, then the Lutheran school and now the southside school. A warning has been issued to all mothers to inspect the bodies of their children before sending them to school. Usually, the measles make their first appearance during the night by breaking out on the body, which has been kept under the blankets. A few hours later, when in a warm school room, they suddenly pop out in the face of the child.

German measles is not dangerous if the children are kept in the house and do not catch colds.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS STORES

The fourth week of the Hartman shoe sale—and the bargains are still as important as ever. Mr. Hartman insists upon moving every pair on his shelves if bargains will do it.

John Angeloff, the new manager at Sadecky's says that after the business that was done at that store last week-end, he is convinced that the general public is ready to respond to values in an independent store as readily as it does to a chain establishment. John ought to know as he had five years experience in a local chain store and he's found that the specials advertised by Sadecky in last week's Herald sold like "no body's business."

Gifts for Valentine Day—articles that any girl or woman will appreciate any day of the year are being featured in the advertisement of the Emerald Shop this week.

Collignon's Delicatessen has gone in for fresh caught fish and claims that the sale of such a product has exceeded all expectations. Last week some of the perch were still flopping when he purchased them at the wholesale market. Announcement of this Friday's prices are on page two.

front page news of the day. The methods employed by the criminals in which they are caught, are taken from facts gained by the author at the criminal laboratory of the Chicago police department and personal contacts with police officials.

It was years after Mr. Gould had the desire to become a cartoonist before he had a strip accepted. Now that the strip is being used, he must work harder than ever in producing the product. Three days a week he starts work at his office in the Tribune tower at five o'clock.

Mr. Gould has a wife and a little girl, neither of whom knows any more about what is going to happen to Dick Tracy and his friends, than does any other reader of the Chicago Tribune.

This is the third of a series of talks on crime prevention that has been given before the Lions club during the past three months. Judge Jonas, spoke at the December meeting. He was followed in January by a demonstration of the lie detector, and the series culminated this month in Mr. Gould, the greatest "paper" detective in America today. His strip first appeared in the New York Herald early in 1931, followed by the adoption of the feature by the Chicago Tribune in the fall of the same year. Since that time a number of imitations have appeared and are appearing in competitive newspapers.

Seniors of A. H. H. S. Will Give Play Mar. 9

"The Youngest," a three-act play selected because of its adaptability to presentation by a student cast, will be presented by the seniors of the Arlington Heights high school March 9. Miss Dorothy Bristow will direct the production. Although new to the school, she has had several years of experience coaching amateur and semi-professional plays elsewhere.

Miss Virginia Weber has been cast in the part of Nancy, Miss Florence Patrick as Muff, Miss Miriam Noyes as Mrs. Winslow, Miss Minetta Huizenga as Augusta, Miss Irma Windheim as Katie, Frederick Netze as Oliver, Ralph Spears as Richard, James Helwig as Alan, and Billy Miles as Mark.

ALL OFFICIALS OF VILLAGES OUT THIS YEAR

Election Entries Start Next Friday in Biggest Local Race

Entries in the annual race for village officers will begin next Friday, with more candidates to be elected than ever before in the history of the state. Under a new law adopted last year, all village officials, president, six trustees, clerk, and police magistrate, will be voted upon to serve concurrent 2-year terms.

Those officials elected last year were chosen to serve only one year. The new system, by cutting the elections from annual to bi-annual affairs and so making a cut in expense, also introduced the possibility that a village's entire officialdom may be ousted and replaced with inexperienced men unfamiliar with the village's government or its recent actions.

The bill making this change was pushed through the legislature at its last regular session by a downstate man on the plea of reducing government costs by cutting the number of elections. It was enacted before village officials and governmental leaders knew anything about it, and the change has been condemned by thinking governmental leaders throughout Illinois.

A bill now before the legislature would make further changes in village government by extending the terms of office for local officials from 2 to 4 years. Municipal leaders oppose this if the terms are to be concurrent, as that would put the village into the hands of a group of officials who would be without check of any kind until the four years ended.

However, if the terms are to be staggered, as in the past, with 4-year terms and bi-annual elections, the change is viewed with more favor. This would restore continuity to the municipal government by leaving half the experienced men in office at each election, while retaining the benefits of fewer elections and adding those of longer terms.

Candidates will file for office from February 15 to March 12. The election will be April 16, with terms of the present officials ending May 1.

Arlington Heights Dollar Days Feb. 22 & 23

Arlington Heights storekeepers are going to offer the greatest bargains of the year in a big two-day sale, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 22 and 23. Arlington Heights people are urged to wait for this sale. Nearly every store is participating in the event. While dollar bargains will predominate, there will be nearly as many specials offered at prices from 10c up.

A special edition will carry the Dollar Day bargains to the surrounding communities and it will be an event that will be well worth waiting for.

Bill Would Allow Bonds To Pay School Teachers

Bonds for the payments of claims and of orders issued for the wages of teachers, and the levying of taxes to pay the principal and interest on such bonds are authorized by a bill introduced in the state legislature last week by Mrs. Bernice T. Van Der Vries, of Winnetka, representative from the seventh district.

A referendum clause is attached to the bill which has the backing of the association of school boards which is trying to give assistance in straightening out the financial affairs of distressed school districts and place them on a sounder basis.

Production of East Side Well now Metered

The village, with the use of relief labor and materials gathered from different sources at no expense has installed the meter formerly used at Searsdale well upon the well on the water tower site. A comparative check of the meter with the power consumption will soon determine the operation cost of that unit of the local water system.

Every one is asked to sign a pledge card for one of the other contestants. It costs you nothing to assist some deserving young man or woman to win one of these free awards. When you sign a card you do not obligate yourself except that you will save the coupons you receive for that particular contestant.

After you have signed a pledge card you are asked to be loyal and save only for the one who secured your signature. See next week's Herald for full details.

HERALD TO GIVE SCHOLARSHIPS TO YOUNG FOLK

$500 Worth of Training in Business School will be Contest Prizes

More than $500 worth of free scholarships in the Suburban Metropolitan business college of Oak Park, are to be awarded to a group of young folks who have attended the Arlington Heights high school.

A trade at home free scholarship contest is to be conducted in Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect sponsored by the Paddock Publications and a group of progressive merchants in which the merchants will issue scholarship receipts or coupons for the same amount as the cash purchase made or the bill that is paid.

The contest is open to all, and the contestants have nothing to buy or nothing to sell. It costs nothing to enter. The prizes, over $500 worth, are awarded to those who gather up the greatest value in coupons before the close of the contest, which lasts four weeks.

Full information will appear in next week's issues of the Arlington Heights Herald and the Mt. Prospect Herald.

A large group of contestants are entering the contest and they are going to ask all of their friends and acquaintances to save all of the coupons they receive when making purchases or paying bills. Each contestant will have pledge cards for his friends to sign in order to keep track of the ones who are saving for him.

IMPROVEMENT OF VEGETABLES TO BE STUDIED

Growers' Schools Will Be Held Next Week; Experts to Talk

Consumers as well as producers stand to profit from the Cook county vegetable growers' schools to be held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, according to the program which has just been announced by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. The emphasis which will be placed on improving the quality and the marketing of vegetables will give consumers a large stake in the schools. Insofar as growers themselves are concerned, all of their leading problems will be discussed in the light of the latest information that is available.

The first of the schools will be held Tuesday and Wednesday in the St. Matthew's school hall on Milwaukee avenue, one-half mile north of Dempster street and four miles east of Des Plaines. This session will be for growers in the northern part of Cook county and in Lake, DuPage and neighboring counties. The second school will be held Wednesday and Thursday in the Cook County Farm Bureau hall, 2114-16 West Grove street, Blue Island, for growers in the southern part of Cook county and in Will and surrounding counties.

With slight exceptions the same program will be given at both schools. Topics scheduled for discussion at both schools include the outlook for vegetable production in 1935, results of work at the Cook county experiment station, the insect outlook for 1935, possibilities and costs of irrigation, water requirements of truck crops, selling vegetables on the Chicago market, possibilities for a study of local marketing problems, vegetable disease outlook, soil tests and their interpretation, and new and improved varieties of vegetables with special reference to disease resistance.

BOOING AT BASKETBALL

It may be a part of baseball to throw pop bottles at the umpires, but unless the public attending basketball games curb present "booing" tendencies, basketball in the schools of the Northwest conference will suffer.

Coaches put forth every effort to teach the players to take referee decisions upon the chin with a grin. It is unfair to the coaches and to the team for the spectators to cry and quibble over verdicts of the sport officials.

The "booing" at the Libertyville sessions of the basketball tournament last week, was very bad. The referees and the players kept their tempers, but here and there in the audience were real followers of the game who were disgusted with the extreme partisanship displayed, notably by the alumni of the schools. It may be necessary to penalize the team whose sponsors make the disturbance and after the referees had punished the teams a few times for the booing of the spectators, basketball could return to its own in the Northwest conference.

FOR SALES OR MANAGEMENT Use Your Telephone

Experts testify that in competition for business the sincerity and personality of sales representatives count for much. The favorable reception so important to success in selling may often be gained without taking the time and trouble to visit customers and prospects in person. The telephone, which carries your voice, also carries your personality and faithfully conveys the impression of your sincerity. With your telephone you can cover your sales territory without leaving your desk. Out of town calls are useful also in handling other business problems—deliveries, collections, conference with associates and a multitude of other details. Long distance telephoning is quick, clear and inexpensive.

Arlington Heights Garden Club Question Box

NEW THINGS FOR YOUR GARDEN

Here is a list and a short description of some of the new flowers, and new varieties of some of the old favorites, that are being offered by the seed houses this spring:

Rust-resistant Snapdragons. In this locality, as well as in many others, we have been troubled considerably with the disease known as rust on these plants. A strain that will be free from this trouble will be very welcome.

Wilt-resistant Asters. Here is another old favorite which often gives disappointing results because of the disease known usually as the "Yellows." New varieties are being offered which are said to be almost immune from this ailment. These cannot be obtained in all varieties and colors, so when purchasing seed, be sure to select the wilt-resistant varieties and colors.

An excellent strain is the one called Giant Crago. One member of the Garden club has raised these which produced flowers four and a half inches in diameter on individual stems eighteen inches long.

Nasturtiums. In 1933 there was introduced the yellow double variety which they called Golden Glean. This has been very popular wherever grown, and has been followed up now with another new one, the Scarlet Glean. There is also advertised this year still another strain of hybrids, known as the Glorious Glean which comes in several colors, all ruffled and semi-double.

Cosmos. The flower that has been selected as the Gold Medal winner of all the new developments, is the new Orange Flame Cosmos. This is a fiery orange scarlet, blooms in four months from seed, on rather bushy plants about two feet high. You surely will want some of these.

Marigold. The new type is known as the Yellow Supreme. It is lemon yellow and the cover is similar to a carnation, only larger. Neither the flowers nor the foliage have the odor common to the ordinary marigolds, which nearly everyone dislikes.

Annual Phlox. We do not know of any flower in the garden which gives the beautiful mixture of color markings as the annual phlox, or Phlox drummondii. The new Gigantea Art Shades strains, have larger flowers and if anything, a still larger variety of pastel shades.

There are also, of course, many new type of dahlias, gladioli, and lilies either developed or imported every year. But we do not care much about these as a general rule on account of their expense. It is very common for the seed houses to ask from $5 to $15 for a single bulb or tuber of the newest developments or importations. If you can afford it, and like to have the rare varieties, all well and good. But in all three of these, many of the most beautiful types are among the lowest priced, and you can purchase them right here in Arlington Heights.

Louis Wetterman, a local grower and M. E. Taseher, assistant farm adviser of Cook county, will be added speakers at the Blue Island school. Problems in tomato growing in the Chicago area will be a special subject at this school.

Bonus Announced

A 5 per cent extra will be paid to 2,450 employees of the Jewel Tea company April 15, according to an announcement made Tuesday by M. H. Karker, president of the company. The distribution will give out approximately $70,000.

NEWS FROM TROOP 5

Scout week is from February 8 to 14, and commemorates the 25th anniversary of the founding of Boy Scouting. Friday, February 8 at 7:30, Troop 5 is giving a party and is inviting the parents of Boy Scouts as well as Troop 7. We have planned a good program and request a good response from the parents.

A court of honor is being held the latter part of February. Our boys have been working hard on their tests, and we hope to see such rapid progress this year as we did in 1934.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Love" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 3.

The Golden Text was, "Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another" (1 John 4:11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee" (Jeremiah 31:3).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In divine Science, we have not as much authority for considering God masculine, as we have for considering Him feminine, for Love imparts the clearest idea of Deity. . . . God is Love. More than this we cannot ask, higher we cannot look, farther we cannot go." (p. 217, 6).

An accident on the highway in which young Sebastian lost his life.

Here comes a new citizen, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert of South Dunton avenue, are the parents of a daughter born Sunday, February 3.

The Woman's Aid of the Presbyterian church, hold their regular session Thursday afternoon this week, February 7.

Mrs. S. C. Hodgkins, who has not been well the past week, while caring for her sister, Mrs. W. W. Guild.

"Dust of the Earth," February 20 and 21, given by L. L. L. Men's club, at the Lutheran school auditorium.

Postmaster Helfers, who makes frequent visits to his mother, receiving treatment in a city hospital for injuries resulting from a fall on the ice, this week had a painful duty to perform on his visit, the telling his mother of the death of her grandson, V. Sebastian, who was killed in an accident on the highway Saturday night.

Mrs. Berchtold had a visit last Sunday from her son, Arthur Doehring and his family from Maywood.

Mr. Stearns of the Southside school, is detained from his place by a light case of measles. Mrs. S. E. Elfeld is substituting in his place during his absence.

Miss K. J. Kealy and Miss Johnson attended the fifty-seventh anniversary celebration of the Christian Endeavor organization at the second Presbyterian church in Chicago, Sunday, February 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stadler came home last week from their vacation motor trip south, principally spent in Florida, where Mr. Stadler has relatives. They were charmed by the mild climate leaving here with the mercury two degrees below, they journeyed into a land of flowers and enjoyed every minute of their all too brief stay.

Miss Agnes Dunn was hostess to the Little Flower club Wednesday evening in her home on East Euclid street.

Anna Bell Johnson went to Springfield last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Grace Scheuts-Thomas, who has employment there.

Mrs. H. C. Cleveland came in to tell us she was leaving for a visit to her son, Prof. Cleveland, at Bloomington, Indiana. She returned home Tuesday this week, and if her visit with her son's family "Billie" and the baby was as happy as her face radiated in anticipation, we are sure she had a delightful time.

The Sunshine club will meet for their regular meeting Wednesday, the 13th, with Mrs. Raoul Peeters, in her home on North Dunton avenue, instead of with Mrs. Charles Peters, as stated last week.

The Misses Frances and Amy Crisler from Glen Ellyn called on their relatives in the Heights Sunday. Miss Frances is principal of one of Glen Ellyn schools and Miss Amy, teacher in a Chicago high school. They spent their vacation on a southern trip to Louisiana, where so many teachers went.

Miss Katie Hipp fell on the ice one day last week and was painfully, though not seriously, injured.

Mrs. Charles Gaare and Mrs. Drexel from Palatine, made their aunt, Mrs. John Berchtold, a pleasant visit Thursday last week.

Thursday last week Mrs. Koelneke took in her car, Mrs. C. E. McWharter, Mrs. Kraft and Mrs. Moller, to the Elmhurst hospital to visit Mrs. Kaeppl, who is recovering from her severe injuries received in an auto accident some time ago. Owing to the severe and critical nature of her injuries, her recovery will be slow, but her friends are hopeful it will not be too long delayed.

From Arlington Heights folks out in California, we hear that Mr. Bell, who made many friends in the Heights while with Mr. Berbecker, has a good position out in California, and is doing well. Of course Mr. and Mrs. Bell are in the friendly groups out there. The sons have good positions and all doing well.

The Cornelia club met with Mrs. Elmer Crane Monday night this week. Mrs. Sayre is the president and about 24 members were present. After the business routine, there were lively games and choice refreshments with their thoughtful hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Reimer from Oak Park, were guests of his sister, Mrs. Arthur McElhose and family, Sunday.

Mrs. Thurman Dodge and Mrs. Hoss made a business trip to Washington, D. C. last week.

The Social Five Hundred were entertained by Mrs. William Schloemann in her home Thursday this week.

About two weeks ago, Mrs. Augusta Geffert had a fall on her basement steps from which she received serious injuries from which she is now obliged to take a two weeks rest in bed.

Birthdays Program at Park Ridge Next Saturday All Day

Mr. and Mrs. Schuerstein from city way, were Sunday guests of her sister, Mrs. Allen Schulte and family.

A number of the old time birthday group surprised Mrs. W. W. Guild by giving her a jolly surprise party Thursday last week. A day in advance of her birthday, which is February 1. Mrs. Guild was happy to see them and her happy spirit radiated to all her guests. It was good for them all.

The old time Mother's club will meet with Mrs. Allen Schuette February 14, Thursday, next week.

On Friday this week, February 15, the troops 5 and 7 Boy Scouts, will meet in the Legion home to celebrate the 25th year of the organization of Scouting. They will be assisted in this observance by the auxiliary and other mothers. It is to be made a joyous occasion. There will be a wonderful birthday cake with 25 candles, each candle representing some event in the pathway of their progress.

The Woman's club, February 20, Wednesday. There is to be staged in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Heller, a Valentine party. Don't forget such a party as only the club entertainment committee know how to commandeer (or pull). Choose your Valentine speedily, or someone may choose you.

Mrs. Olive Allison plans to stay with her sister in California until about May 1, when she will return to her cottage at the Des Plaines camp ground.

Sunday evening, February 14, there will be held a special missionary thank offering service in the Presbyterian church. The pastor, Dr. Kossack, will speak and the junior choir will have charge of the service.

Mrs. Arthur Jenkinson of Park Ridge came to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Guild Monday this week. Both Mrs. Jenkinson and her husband have been too ill to come for some time.

Leonard Bolte and Miss Wilhelmina Kuecker were married Saturday in Chicago.

Monday night this week the Legion auxiliary held a special Americanism program as follows: A group in costume representing George Washington and his family. Miss Virginia McElhose read Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg speech. Mrs. George Parker gave historical sketches. There was patriotic singing. The closing was the singing of Illinois. There was a choice luncheon and a happy patriotic season enjoyed in our good old American fashion. Arranged by the committee on Americanism, consisting of Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. McElhose.

The young ladies of the St. James' parish will sponsor a Valentine party and dance Wednesday evening, Feb. 13, in the school hall. Admission 35 cents per person. The ladies are busy in preparing decorations in keeping with the Valentine spirit.

February Safety Poster

The dangers of pedestrians, bundled up for cold or blustery weather, walking into the path of oncoming autos is shown in the February Safety poster distributed to schools by the Chicago Motor club. The poster also depicts the difficulties of the driver, whose windshield coats with snow or ice and limits his vision.

Double Gift Distribution Made Necessary

It may be the exceptionally good first run pictures or a natural habit or more probably the fine awards plus the extraordinary sound and projection or any of a half dozen or more popular reasons, but at any event the Arlington Theatre's capacity of 531 seats and space room for another hundred or more cannot cope with the demand for seats at the first show. Presuming that the gift awards coming along at about 8 o'clock, has something to do with the early crowds Mr. Godshaw has a solution to make everybody happy and comfortable TWO GIFT DISTRIBUTIONS of equal size and proportion.

It will not mean that the list of awards will be cut in half. It means there will be twice as many gifts of identical values at both shows. The first gifts at 8, the second about 9:30. The doors will open at 6:15. The first show will start about 8:45. The second show will start about 8:45 or sooner. Those coming as late as 9:20 will see a complete show and also enjoy one of the gift distributions. There will be just as much awarded at the 9 o'clock show as there will be at the show starting at 8:45. Plenty of seats will be available for the second show at 8:30 or 8:45.

Arlington Heights O. E. S. Arlington Heights O. E. S. will meet on Thursday, Feb. 14. After the stated meeting there will be a Valentine party for the members. We are sorry to hear that Sister Helfers has a fractured hip and is confined to the hospital; also that Sister Carla Ehret, our junior past matron, is ill in the hospital. We extend our sympathy to Sister Lillian Adam, whose son was injured and died in the Mt. Prospect hospital on Monday.

Estimates will be given on request for plumbing, heating or sheet metal work.

The St. Cecilia Choral Society Big Card Party

Wednesday night, January 30, the Choral Society (Saint Cecilia) of St. James church, gave a card party in their school hall. A most enjoyable program was given as follows:

Piano duet by Raoul and Donald Peeters. Jacqueline Toussaint gave a character sketch in costume, Mickey Mouse looking for Minnie. Then came a solo, "Silent As the Night" by Mrs. Anne Donleat, tap dancing by Miss Josephine Brodeen. Virginia McElhose gave another pleasing reading. Next a quartet, Mrs. Toussaint, Mrs. Donleat, Mr. Coughlin and Mr. Toussaint sang. Mrs. Cizek was accompanist to all the vocal numbers. All a charming musical treat. Following this program, there were 45 tables ready for the games. These were played with good natured vigor and intent to win. The door prizes were a beautiful fire lamp. The second prize was a beautiful etching suitably framed of the President. At the tables each prize received was a solid silver salad fork. Other prizes were several satin pillows donated by Peter Frederick; also donated as prizes three boxes of Fannie May candies; a whistling tea kettle, donated by Miss Agnes Dunn. A shampoo and finger glove from Watson Beauty shop, also donated were other prizes as follows: A box of toilet powder, also boxes of confectionery.

If in our haste anything or any person has been omitted, don't blame the chairman for she carefully enumerated all that was in this wonderful entertainment. The Choral society desire publicly express their appreciative thanks, who so splendidly helped to make this party a grand success. We would not fail to mention the appetizing good eat luncheon so bountifully served by the committee.

Big Masquerade Is Saturday Night

There will be lots of fun for old folks and young folks if you come masked to the prize masquerade dance at Seip's hall, Palatine, Ill., Saturday night, Feb. 9. Meet your friends. Help make this a real homecoming. Masks can be obtained at hall.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mr. P. B. Thomas was pleasantly surprised on his birthday last Tuesday evening by his friends and associates at the E. W. A. Rowles plant of which he is manager of the shades and eraser division.

The evening was spent in playing pinocle by the men and bridge by the ladies, after which lunch was served and all the guests departed wishing Mr. Thomas many happy returns of the day.

Dr. E. E. Gieske

A popular establishment located in Wheeling serves the best of food. Dinners, lunches, beer and drinks. Free fish every Friday. Music for dancing and entertainment. Felix Rogalski, Prop.

That important question often arises among the young folks, "Where shall we go for something good to eat and drink after the show?" In this section of the country it is easily answered. In every community there will be some eating establishment that stands out from all others of its kind as being the one place where those who know good food and service gather. In Wheeling this outstanding place is The Union Hotel. Their ever-increasing patronage is eloquent proof of the fact that those who patronize this place pass the good news along to their friends. The owner, Felix Rogalski, is among those few fortunate people who in addition to knowing their business thoroughly, possesses a personality which makes warm friends and steady patrons of persons who would remain just casual acquaintances.

Whether you are visiting this place for the first time or whether you are numbered among its best patrons, you will receive a hearty welcome whenever you drop in there. In fact, the welcome atmosphere is very noticeable and the "Welcome" sign is always out.

They serve free fish every Friday and have orchestras for dancing on special occasions. At this popular place you will find the service of the best. The prices are very reasonable. And last but not least, the owner and his assistants will be found to be courteous and accommodating at all times. We urge their patronage when you are in Wheeling as we can assure you a pleasant stay had where ever you drop in there.

Wheeling State Bank

With a bank home in Wheeling, offers a complete banking service. A strong and Conservative institution. They enjoy this confidence of the people. Telephone Wheeling 20.

Built on the solid rock of a sound financial policy, the Wheeling State Bank, has stood as a "financial pillar" of this community. The policy of this bank has been shaped and directed by men in whom the people have always placed confidence.

From the organization of this bank it has always been spoken of as a "Bank of the People." This reputation is well merited. It has been a Banking Institution for the Farmer, Working man and the Small Merchant and the general public.

The management of this banking institution is in a large measure responsible for the fact that this Bank has been ready and willing to help any business, large or small, which by any justification merited help. The directors and employees of this Bank are courteous and obliging; they are anxious to help solve the personal problems of any and all patrons of this institution.

This readiness to accommodate the people of this community has increased the power and prestige of this Bank among the financial institutions of this section of the state and country.

We are pleased in this edition to bring before our readers the Wheeling State Bank in Wheeling, as among our strong financial institutions and their Directors and Officials are men that are boosters for our community and are always back of every progressive project.

Royal Blue Store—Wheeling

With a modern store in Wheeling. Supplies a high grade line of Groceries, Fruits, Vegetables and Allied Products. "Where Price, Quality and Service Prevails." Wilma Reichenbach, Prop.

This well known store is the one shop in this district where the housewife knows she can secure the best foods at reasonable prices. The store is modern and up to date in every particular—clean and sanitary throughout and the business is conducted along progressive lines. We are proud to say that it is a credit to the commercial life of this section.

To be able to make certain of getting the best of fresh groceries, fruits and vegetables and allied products is a boon to any community. At this market you will find the salespeople have the ability of giving you exactly what you wish and a large or small order receives the same treatment. The management of this market sees that the quality is high and that you receive always the choicest of everything. The public is assured of a market of the very highest grade right here at home that sells their goods at prices that compare with any store. Thus it merits the consideration and liberal support of the farmers and town folks.

The owner, Wilma Reichenbach, will be found to be courteous and accommodating at all times, and has been associated closely with the business interests of this section for some time.

She is very careful in selecting only the choicest merchandise and seeing that her customers are pleased in every way.

The Wheeling Market

With a modern and sanitary market located in Wheeling, Ill. Handles only the finest quality of meats. Fine home made sausage. Prompt service, prices reasonable. Telephone 41.

A large number of people in this section have learned that the quality and price that prevails at this market cannot be duplicated. Stop at this market when you are in Wheeling.

This prominent market is strictly modern, clean and sanitary. Purchasing as they do, only the finest grades of meat and keeping it in their up to date method, the public is assured of only the best in meats.

This meat market is the community's most economical center for fresh meats. The meats are prepared under the most healthful conditions and are then kept clean and sanitary in the market so you need have no fear of unclean food when buying here.

Here you do not only save on the price of your meats but you receive service. They take great pride in serving the public promptly and obligingly. If you are not familiar with the different cuts of meat they will gladly explain them to you. Many customers have learned the relative value of different cuts through the courtesy of this market. This market specializes in fine home made sausage. Its pure and seasoned to a savory taste. A favorite with particular people.

Daily this well known concern is serving more people. The demand for their products is always increasing. They meet with the approbation of the public and there are many families in this vicinity who are patrons of this establishment.

In this business review we wish to congratulate the community upon having such a wholesome, sanitary establishment, so ably managed in their midst, and take this opportunity of making the market better known in this community.

The Union Hotel

A well known and reliable veterinarian with office in Wheeling on Dundee Road. Has a host of friends and patrons from this vicinity. Specializes in the treatment of livestock and pets. Phone Wheeling 24.

In the whole catalogue of human activities there are none greater or more essential than that of the veterinary surgeon. The onward rush of science has done as much in the line of veterinary surgery as for the ailments of humans. Some of the leading scientific minds of the country have developed material progress in this necessary and important profession and all the latest features which have received the approval of the leading veterinarians of the country are available to the people of this section when they secure the service of this highly efficient practitioner.

Dr. Gieske, a veterinarian of long and successful experience, has kept fully abreast of the times and is considered by members of the profession as an authority on epidemic ics, diseases and treatment of animals.

Patrons have found him to be a capable, whole hearted and accommodating gentleman.

His location in this community has proved to be a great boon to farmers, stock raisers and everyone owning livestock and pet animals. By means of his marked ability to correctly diagnose and properly treat the various ailments he has saved owners many thousands of dollars.

The general satisfaction expressed by clients and the great demand for his services, constitute a well merited tribute to his capability and conscientious methods. We wish to compliment the doctor on his valuable knowledge and to direct the attention of our readers to his most efficient service.

WHEELING DEPARTMENT

Wheeling Presbyterian church was represented by a delegation of four at the 12th annual older girls conference of Chicago Presbytery, which was held at Libertyville last week-end, Feb. 1, 2, 3. About 225 delegates were in attendance, representing 50 or more churches. Each church is allowed 4 delegates including an adult leader, unless registrations are low, when more delegates are allowed. This year the majority of churches sent their quota, making it possible for very few, even of the larger Chicago churches to send more than 4. The conference theme was built around "The Christian Home" and proved vitally interesting to all attending. The principle speaker was Dr. Regina Westcott Wieman, consulting psychologist on problems of personal and family relations of Chicago University. Discussion leaders were Mrs. Evelyn Duvall of Chicago, Association for Child Study and Parent Education; Mrs. P. R. Hayward, Co-Author of "The Home as Christian Living"; Mrs. O. B. Sellers, Chicago Presbytery Society; Mrs. Harry Munro, Kenwood Community church. The complete program was under the direction of Dr. R. H. Elliott, director of Religious Education of Chicago Presbytery, and Miss Mary Leigh Palmer of Presbytery College of Christian Education assisted by numerous directors of various churches of the Presbytery.

The conference proved a rich and happy experience for all, even as have the conferences of the past. The members of Libertyville church under the leadership of their pastor, Rev. Bruce Gillis, proved most gracious hosts and hostesses, opening their homes as well as their church to the delegates for the 2-day period. This was but the second of these conferences at which the Wheeling church was represented, and the first time by a full delegation. Those attending were the Misses Dorothy Bailing, Bernice Kassel, Virginia Gieske and Miss L. Schneider as leader.

Increasing Auto Numbers Challenge to Oil Industry

The increasing number of automobiles in use in this country is viewed as a demand and a challenge to automotive engineers and petroleum chemists engaged in an effort to improve the efficiency of modern gasoline and lubricating oils, by John D. Collins, general sales manager of the Tide Water Oil company, which is associated with the Sterling Oil company of Arlington Heights.

"The problems of the fuel expert multiply as the number of cars increases," Mr. Collins said, "and strangely enough, the amount of gasoline and oil sold does not increase in the same proportion as the number of cars on the road. The answer is to be found in the ingenuity of the petroleum chemists who are increasing the mileage of gas and oil in a proportion greater than the increased sale of automobiles. The car-owning public is getting the break and deserves it; the petroleum producing and refining companies are getting increased efficiency and a more scientific product."

Approval Advance Plan For Fund to Aid Schools

Immediate aid for school districts is promised in the federal relief administration's approval of a request to the Emergency Relief Administration of Illinois for $200,000 for school districts unable to meet their bills.

The request was forwarded to Washington following a conference between Leo W. Chulock, president of the State School Board association, Jacob Dittus, secretary of the Suburban Area and Country Towns association, and Governor Henry Horner.

About the Tournament

Libertyville tied Palatine's record by winning conference championships with both light and heavyweight teams. Palatine's record of last year was in scheduled play while Libertyville turned the trick in the tournament last week.

While Libertyville won the tournament trophies, probably the outstanding achievement of the tournament was turned in by Warren in winning their way to the semi-finals at the expense of Wauconda and Antioch and then leading Libertyville all the way until the finish of a game which went overtime. Warren had lost seven straight games in conference competition. A great team leader in the clever half-hawk Zimmerman is the reason for the unusual showing of Kelson's team. Dixon, a sharp shooting forward, also had quite a hand in the upsets staged by the Warren team.

One of the most unusual features of Warren's play was their feat of holding Antioch scoreless for 23 minutes of their game. Antioch had a 9-2 lead at the end of five minutes. Then Warren held them without a tally until the final four minutes of the game and won 13 to 11. At that Warren missed 10 out of 11 free throws.

The tourney was featured by close games. The widest margin of victory was but 7 points in any game. This was the margin of the Libertyville-Leyden final and the Leyden-Bensenville first round game. There were two games decided by 6 points, one by 4 points, one by 3 points, three by 2 points and the Palatine-Arlington by a single point.

The two overtime contests of the semi-finals probably established a record which will stand for some time as will the margin of victory for the 9 tournament games as a group which averaged a margin of but 3.7 between winners and losers.

Back shooting was, on the average, however, about at its worst for conference tournaments. Leyden for example did not have a single good night of scoring. Libertyville probably missed the most shots of any team in a single game in their overtime battle with Warren. In the Palatine game Leyden made one basket in their first 40 shots. On the other hand Warren's shooting against Libertyville was phenomenal and Libertyville's lights hit 35 per cent of their shots against Palatine.

Tourney Highlights

1. Closest game—Palatine 14, Arlington 13.
2. Highest game score—Libertyville 36 in final.
3. Highest individual player scoring for one game—Dixon of Warren 12.
4. Highest scoring for entire tourney—Matussek of Leyden 35 in four games.
5. Best comeback to win—Warren beat Antioch 13-11 after trailing 9-2 in first five minutes of game.
6. Most unexpected score—Warren playing an overtime with Libertyville.
7. Best free throwing by a team—Leyden 13 out of 18 in final game.
8. Best individual free throwing—Matussek of Leyden with 5 out of 5 in final. Jaeger's 6 out of 8 for Libertyville in same game.
9. Best scoring in the pinch—(1) Kruse's two shots from center to give Palatine their victory over Arlington. Kruse also scored in the overtime against Leyden.
- (2) Madden's two baskets in overtime to beat Warren in semi-final.
- (3) Kossack of Leyden who scored in last 30 seconds to tie Palatine and then scored another goal in overtime.

10. Most evenly distributed team scoring—Libertyville with Madden 21, Isaacson 16, Jaeger 15, Sticks 11, Brown 11 and Worthen 10.

12. Foremost free throwing—Warren's 1 out of 11 in Antioch game.
13. Greatest first half advantage—Warren 20, Wauconda 6.
14. Most surprising team performance—Warren in north section and Ela in south section.
15. Best defensive work—Palatine holding Arlington to two field goals. Warren holding Antioch to two field goals. Both teams used zone defenses.
16. Most fouls in an evening—70 called on 4 teams in final games.

Bronco's Consolation

Barrington has one consolation in dropping out of the tourney in the first round in that they are better prepared to meet tough opposition in their remaining games. They have a distinct advantage over Leyden tonight for the Eagles had four close tournament games last week.

The lightweights showed the

SUPERIORITY AT BASKET WINS FINAL

Third Meet Trophy in 5 Years Won by 36-29 Victory of Wildcats.

Libertyville won the Northwest Conference tournament championship for the third time in the last five years when they whipped Leyden 36 to 29 in the final on the Wildcat court last Saturday night. Libertyville had previously nosed out Barrington 21 to 19 in the second round and Warren 27 to 23 in the semi-finals.

Superior basket shooting carried Libertyville to victory in the finals. The team coached by Jack Madden shot 13 baskets out of 46 attempts and sank 10 out of 15 free throws in downing the Eagles. Six Wildcats scored 3 or more points with Jaeger topping the list with 10 counters.

The outstanding star of the final game was Matussek of the winners. The Leyden ace scored three field goals and five out of five free throws to lead all the scorers with 11 points. His under the basket play on offense and all around good work stamped him as the outstanding player of the 1935 tournament. Matussek scored 35 points in four tournament games. Leyden made but 8 baskets in 55 shots, but dropped 13 out of 18 free tries.

Leyden lost the ball game in the second quarter. The first period ended 8-13 in favor of Libertyville, but Williams and Matussek committed five fouls between them and in an effort to save them for the last half Coach Watson substituted for them in the second quarter. Just before the half Libertyville ran a count of 15 to 14 up to 22 to 15 on fine work by Madden, Sticks, and Brown.

The last half found Leyden trying desperately to overcome the seven point lead. Matussek scored 7 points on the rally, but Libertyville, with Jaeger leading the attack, matched the Eagles point for point. Matussek was finally lost on fouls.

The third period ended 30 to 21, Williams, diminutive Leyden captain, had 10 shots without a single one registering in the last half.

Libertyville, noted for the competitive spirit of their teams, came through the tournament not alone because they have players of ability but because their team plays best when the competition is keenest.

Overtime Battles Feature Semi-Finals

Overtime battles featured the semi-finals. Leyden won 18 to 16 over Meigs' Palatine Pirates in an extra period after Kossack's basket tied the score just before the final gun. Palatine led 8 to 6 at the half and 9 to 6 starting the last period. The score was tied at 14 all at the end of the regular playing period. In overtime Kruse scored for the Pirates, but Kossack dropped in a field goal and Kruse and Matussek made good on free throws. Palatine made 6 out of 32 shots from the field and Leyden 6 out of 53.

Warren led Libertyville through the game until the final minute when Worthen's basket tied the count at 23-23. In the overtime Madden scored twice to give Libertyville a 27 to 23 victory.

Warren's play upset the dope as Libertyville had previously doubled the count on them in a conference game. Accurate shooting by Dixon who accumulated 12 points and by Phillips gave Warren a lead at the start which they held until the finish. The count was 8-3 at the quarter, 14-12 at the half and 22 to 20 at the three quarter mark with Warren in front. Libertyville was completely off form in basket shooting. They took at least three times the number of shots attempted by Warren. This game as well way in tournament scoring. Murphy of Libertyville made 16 points in the final while Foster of Palatine had 14 against Leyden and 12 in the Libertyville game. It looks like both Palatine and Libertyville have some classy material coming up to keep their heavyweight teams of the next couple of years in the running. And don't forget Leyden in this connection with a swell lightweight team.

Speaking of Players

It is not the practice of the conference to allow an all tournament team to be selected and we are not going to attempt that. However in our opinion the two best all round players in the tournament in value to their respective teams were Matussek of Leyden and Zimmerman of Warren. We could not say too much about the merits of this pair, each the spark plug of his team and a man who thrives on keen competition.

This boy Nehmer who plays guard for Ela is one of the best players in the conference. He is a whiz on a fast break and a fine guard. The Ela team has shown great improvement since last year and their playing indicates good coaching. The Ela team gave Leyden a real scare and might have beaten the Eagles had they compiled an average shooting percentage.

Junior League's Standings Unchanged In Past Week

Standings in the Junior High School league remain unchanged this week, with Dundee holding first place in the top division by virtue of two more victories, and Arlington Heights leading the second division after another successful game.

Dundee defeated Palatine's first team 38-9, and downed Cary's regulars 20-9 during the past week. Dundee's seconds won 16-11 from Cary. Arlington's lights won 21-15 from Woodstock, and their first team 20-16 from the same school.

Barrington and Crystal Lake teams did not play. Palatine's first team lost 9-8 to Woodstock in the first of their two games since last Friday, and their second team was swamped 16-2 by the Woodstock boys. Palatine seconds lost to Algonquin 25-1 Tuesday night.

as the Palatine-Leyden game was marked by rough playing.

Two Close Games At Palatine

Ela put up a whale of a fight against Leyden in the second round before succumbing 24-18 at Palatine. The blue clad Lake Zurich boys outplayed their opponents in the first half, and despite an ability to pierce the hoop, trailed by only 1 point at the half when the score stood 10-9.

In the second game on the same floor, Palatine defeated Arlington Heights 14-13. The score was tied four times, and there never was more than 4 points difference between the tallies of the contestants. Palatine was behind 7-6 at the half. A pair of long shots by Kruse from the center of the floor took the lead in the last few minutes of play.

Warren, 'Cats Win at Antioch

Libertyville stepped by the obstacle which loomed greatest in their tournament path when they defeated Barrington 21 to 19 in the second round. The Wildcats led 15 to 10 at the half, and won the game on free throws as they scored one field goal than the Barrington lost both their regular guards on fouls. Conn was high scorer of the game with 8 points.

Warren scored an unexpected upset of Antioch 13 to 11 for their second tournament victory and the right to meet Libertyville in the semi-finals. The Blue Devils led by Zimmerman's three field goals made a gallant comeback to win after Antioch had piled up an early lead of 9-2 in the first five minutes. Steffenberg who was lost on fouls scored 8 of Antioch's 11 points. Antioch, playing a slow cautious game had the ball nearly all the time but found Warren's tight zone defense so baffling that only two field goals were scored.

PIRATES MEET WARREN FIVE AT PALATINE

Bensenville play at Arlington as series is resumed after Tourney.

Games Tonight

Leyden at Barrington.
Warren at Palatine.
Bensenville at Arlington.
Ela at Antioch.
Wauconda at Libertyville.

Leyden comes to Barrington tonight in what promises to be the most spectacular and hard-fought game remaining in the season until the final week when Barrington comes to Palatine.

A victory for Leyden tonight will tie Barrington and Palatine for first place and that final game will give the Pirates a chance for an undisputed championship. A victory for Barrington will still give the Palatine five an opportunity to tie for the title if they defeat the Broncos tonight.

The last time Leyden and Barrington met the Eagles led all the way until a pair of last minute baskets by Mollenkamp saved the night for the Broncos with a 23-21 victory. In tonight's contest Leyden will have the help of Kadon, tall guard who was sick at the time of the first game, and also of Chapp, lanky reserve forward, ineligible during the first semester.

Palatine's Pirates will play at home against Warren after a series of games on the road. In their first meeting Palatine won a 29-21 victory after a 20-6 lead at the half.

However, the Blue Devils, after their great showing in the tournament, may play a different kind of ball than they did the first half of the season, and after viewing the battle Libertyville had to win from the scrappy Gurnee quintet, the Pirates will do well to put an extra keen edge on their sabres before going on deck to engage their Warren visitors tonight.

Bensenville's newly christened Bisons come to Arlington where they'll try to trample the Cardinals. In their previous meeting the Cardinals won, 29-23, by a last quarter rally after the score had been tied 23-23 when the third period ended.

Last goes to Antioch. When they last met, Antioch won, 23-16, in a last quarter rally. Ela led until the final quarter. Wauconda goes to Libertyville. Last time Libertyville won 24-20 with Sticks counting 13 points.

Blue Aces Win 34-38 In Overtime Game

Playing into an overtime period, the Arlington Blue Aces defeated a colored Y. M. C. A. team from Evanston 34-38 at Arlington Heights Tuesday night. Stefanik scored a pair of under the basket shots in the overtime to give his team the victory.

English of the colored boys tied the score 34-34 as the game ended after he and Walker had brought his team up after trailing 22-21 at the half. Each of these players scored 10 points. Stefanik and Brodman of the Aces scored 8 points each. A large crowd saw the game.

Aces Down 'Y' Boys 45-21 at Arlington

A 45-21 victory was won by the Arlington White Aces playing an Evanston colored Y. M. C. A. team Tuesday night. Steve Brodman led his team in offense and defense and scored six field goals. Cooper of the visitors kept his team in the running by scoring three field goals and three free throws.

The visitors tossed in 11 of 14 free throws and five field goals, while the Aces made only 9 of 13 free throws, but counted with 19 field goals. Arlington got away to a 11-1 lead early in the game, but the visitors came to 16-13 at the half.

Two Tourneys Coming

Two tournaments for suburban basketball teams will be held next month. March 1 and 2 girls teams will meet in a tourney in the Abraham Lincoln grade school in Park Ridge, and March 14, 15, and 16 boys fives will meet on the same floor.

KITTY KLEIN of Buffalo National outdoor woman's skating champ, 19-year old brunette who had no difficulty in defeating opponents in the All-Star Skating carnival at the Medinah country club Sunday. A crowd of 5,000 persons saw the meet, which is to be an annual event.

Undefeated Suburban Loop Leaders Will Meet Tomorrow

Skokie Valley CCC camp five and the Des Plaines Publishers will meet tomorrow night in a game which will decide the leadership of the Suburban League. Neither team has been defeated, and this, the final game of the first round of the league series, will decide the first round championship.

The game will be played at 8:30 o'clock on the Abraham Lincoln grade school floor in Park Ridge where all the games of the league are played.

Last week Skokie Valley defeated Downers Grove 33-27, Des Plaines defeated Maywood 21-16, and Bensenville downed Franklin Park 23-17. The Palatine-Park Ridge game was postponed without a date being set.

This week's games for Thursday night play are Downers Grove versus Bensenville, Park Ridge and Maywood, and Franklin Park and Maywood. A meeting scheduled for Thursday night was also to decide upon whether the second half of the league's schedule should be played as planned.

Pickwick Girls Double Score on Arlington

In an uninteresting game at Park Ridge, the Arlington Heights C. A. C. girls' team lost 14-7 to the Pickwick girls. A lone basket by Diederich, Arlington center, and five free throws, were the total of Arlington's scoring. The Pickwick girls scored seven field goals and no free throws. A. Ronde, forward, counted for three, Ryan, center for two.

"Bennie" Diederich played her usual game for the C. A. C., but had little support. Tonight at the Arlington Heights girls play at St. John's, LaVerne and Montrose streets, Chicago.

Badgers Resume Play

After an enforced idleness of two weeks due to first semester examinations, the University of Wisconsin basketball squad resumed training this week and goes into action against the DePaul collegians tomorrow night. Next Monday night they play Chicago's Maroons.

Third Game Added

A third game has been added to tonight's bill in the Palatine gym. Following the two games between the Palatine and Warren high school fives, the Palatine town team will play a Dundee town team.

LIGHTWEIGHTS GOOD SHOOTING TRIMS PIRATES

Wildkittens Take 19-9 Lead at half; Palatine Rally falls short.

Libertyville won the lightweight section of the Northwest conference tournament with a sparkling demonstration of basket shooting as they trimmed Palatine 40 to 26 in a preliminary to the heavyweight finals. Palatine had the most shots, but the Libertyville boys scored almost twice the number of field goals accumulated by their opponents.

Palatine started well and led 7 to 6 at the quarter on a basket by Mess and five out of six free throws but, led by Murphy, the Wildcats came back to run up a 19 to 9 lead at the half. This margin was retained through most of the second half. One Palatine rally led by Foster brought the Pirates to within 3 points of Libertyville midway in the third period but the pace could not be maintained.

A total of 40 fouls were called in the game of which 21 were on Palatine and 19 on Libertyville. The Pirates lost four regulars on fouls and the last quarter was played with numerous substitutes in the lineup. Palatine made 7 field goals in 46 shots, while Libertyville had 13 out of 37. Both teams missed 12 free throws with Libertyville caging 14 and Palatine 11.

Murphy, small Libertyville flash, scored 16 points and played a great floor game in leading the fast breaking attack of the Wildcats. Foster came through with 12 points for Palatine.

Palatine reached the finals by defeating Leyden 32 to 29 in the first round. The Pirates led all the way and staved off a last period rally by the Eagles. Foster was high scorer with 14 points and Mangels made 10.

The Libertyville champions advanced to the final round by downing Barrington 32 to 25. They staged a second half comeback to win.

The lightweight division of the tournament was a new feature with the four top teams in the league standings competing. Coach Crawford's Libertyville five won a well deserved title with an outstanding exhibition.

LOCAL MEN ATTEND I.A.A. CONVENTION

Cook County Farm Bureau President, Advisor, Asst. Among Group

Cook county agriculture was represented at the annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural association in Quincy last week by Harvey Adair of Chicago Heights, president of the Cook County Farm Bureau; O. G. Barrett and M. E. Tascher, farm adviser and assistant; C. H. Mills, county organization director; E. A. Carncross, director of insurance; three farm bureau delegates, Dan Bergman of Palatine, E. L. Horn of Leyden township, and Carl Barnett of Tinley Park; D. A. Niefeldt of Homewood, ex-president of the farm bureau; also Henry Gewecke of Leyden, Homer Long of Maine, Joseph Brooks of Niles, Louis Pohlman of Elk Grove, Alfred Landmeier of Elk Grove, Fred Porep of Palatine, and Earl Siensson of Bremen who represented the northwest district of Illinois as the winner in the Skilled Drivers' club. The convention was the largest yet held. Quincy's facilities for care of the group were overtaxed. The auditorium of the high school was insufficient to seat all those in attendance. The convention was an expression of the year's success of the Illinois Agricultural association.

Nineteen hundred thirty-four will be recorded in history as one of the most eventful years of the present generation. This is true as affecting individuals, institutions and government," said Earl C. Smith, president of the I. A. A. "We have witnessed slow but steady progress from the depths of the depression reached in 1929," he said. "Our continued rise to equality of opportunity for all will largely depend upon the patience, the courage and the determination of all citizens, but more particularly upon those engaged in America's basic and most important industry."

"While not yet reaching its goal, the national farm program directed toward the improvement of farm conditions, which was largely initiated and aggressively supported by the farm bureaus of state and nation, has been the most potent factor of all government activities in starting the wheels of national recovery."

Eagles? What is all this talk about Eagles? Who are they? What do they do? These and many more similar questions are becoming very popular in Park Ridge and the neighboring towns ever since the installation of Park Ridge Aerie No. 2169, four months ago, the baby Aerie of the State of Illinois.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles is an organization of men who have a very strong regard and feeling for their fellow men. Through their efforts the Fraternal Order of Eagles have made it possible for the uplift of humanity in general. These are some of the bills advocated by the Eagles and passed by the majority of States in the Union: "Workman's Compensation Law," "Widow's Pension Law," and "Old Age Pension Law" which is to eliminate the poor families in this country. (Not the Townsend Plan).

The Eagle-Ludlow bill, for the Stabilization of Employment, has been honored in Washington D. C. by being granted the position of House Bill No. 2, Bill No. 1 is the Bonus Bill; Bill No. 3 is the McSwain bill to prevent profiteering in time of war.

We have made proud progress with this latest Eagles Bill as of other sessions of Congress. It has already been referred to the House Committee of Labor.

Park Ridge and its neighboring towns can well be proud that they have an Aerie of this wonderful Order in their midst.

With the free doctor service and various other benefits each and every member is entitled to, for the small amount of fees and dues paid, is it any wonder that the interest should be so great?

We welcome more Eagles to join us.

The new model Pontiac cars are meeting instant favor with the public. They are truly outstanding cars in style and operating features, that have made the Pontiac so popular for years. Pontiac is a General Motors product, with body by Fisher, which is sufficient proof of its dependability and value.

The new Buick cars are also a sensation of the automotive world. Buick cars are too well known to need a great deal of comment.

Their policies of fair dealing and courtesy during the past twenty-three years in business have made them one of the most favored automobile agencies in this part of the state.

After the sale of a new car they do not consider the deal as completed until the customer is satisfied, as they have the welfare of their patron at heart and they see to it that this new car is right in every possible way.

When you have your car serviced by them you can feel sure it will come out of their shop in perfect condition, whether it is an old car or a new car, and that the mechanic who has done your work has had years of practical experience. Their work shop is equipped with the best machinery to turn out a first class job, and you will be given prompt service, shown real courtesy and only charged a reasonable price.

In this review of business firms of Park Ridge, Wm. Busse & Son, Inc., can be unhesitatingly commended for their reputation as business men and as community boosters.

The Manos Restaurant

Park Ridge's favorite eating place at 100 Main St., corner Fairview, serves the best of foods, dinners, lunches, steaks and chops. Soda fountain service. Nick J. Manos, Prop.

This cafe is one of the most popular in this part of the county and it merits the large patronage it receives, for it is one of the cleanest and most sanitary—serving the palatable foods to be found anywhere. It is very popular with the people of Park Ridge and the surrounding territory.

This cafe has gained a name that has spread far and wide as a place where the public can more than satisfy their demands in the matter of obtaining good food. The menu not only consists of the prime necessities of life, but many delicacies are offered that are tempting to the taste of the most fastidious appetite.

Cleanliness is one of the outstanding features of this modern place, and this is not confined to the tables alone, but goes into the kitchen where all dishes and utensils are thoroughly washed and sterilized.

The service is equally satisfactory whether your order be large or small as the owner, Nick Manos, and his assistants make you feel at home and that your patronage is desired and appreciated.

In conclusion let us say that, nowhere will you find better food, finer service and more reasonable prices than you will there. Among the most pleasant surroundings you are served with the best. This is an entirely different kind of a place. A dinner there will be one long to be remembered.

This well known and reliable concern serving the entire Northwest district constitutes one of the important factors of this community. It is one of the leading institutions of its kind in this part of Cook county.

This institution enables people who can meet small monthly payments to obtain a loan on their personal belongings or salaries, without red tape or inquiries being made from their employers or friends. In fact all transactions with this concern are treated in confidence.

Any business or profession which renders such a valuable service to the community is bound to progress with the community it serves so faithfully. This is quite true with this institution, so well are they serving the public that they have provided for every convenience for their customers.

They will gladly arrange a loan of any amount from fifty to three hundred dollars on your car, house hold goods, livestock or salary. Their rates are reasonable as they charge only the legal rate provided by the state. You pay interest only for the actual time you have a loan with them.

In conclusion let us state that their representative will be glad to call on you and explain in detail their method of making loans. We can assure you that any transactions with them will be entirely satisfactory.

Rose - Marie Frocks

Park Ridge's popular ladies' shop at 23 S. Prospect Ave., features stylish and distinctive wearing apparel at moderate prices. Price and quality on every purchase at this shop.

To meet the demands of the women of any community with apparel that is distinctive and serviceable is one thing—to meet this demand with quality and price is still another. The Rose Marie Frocks does both. For this reason this local enterprising shop is very popular with the best dressed women of this community.

Here they feel sure they can find exactly what they want at prices they can afford to pay.

Regardless of whether you come prepared to make a purchase—or whether you are just looking for something that becomes you—you will find the same eager, earnest desire to render you the most courteous and efficient service possible.

Price, quality and service are the features upon which this shop was founded and while the latest edicts of fashion in feminine attire are found there earliest, the prices are always very reasonable.

It is needless to say that a store serving the public so efficiently is a decided asset to the community. The very principles and policies are due proof of the integrity of the owners and those in charge.

In conclusion, let us suggest that you pay this popular shop a visit on your next trip to Park Ridge as we feel sure they will be able to please you.

Fred I. Gillick

With office in the Park Ridge building and Loan Assn., at 122 Main St., Park Ridge. Features a complete Real Estate and Insurance Service. Fire, Tornado, Burglary, Auto, Liability and Household Insurance. Property Management. Operate Building and Loan Assn., and the Park Ridge Currency Exchange. Phone Park Ridge 777.

It is a well known fact that the necessities for a successfully operated real estate business are those of experience in good values and a good judgment. Such important matters of real estate require a great deal of consideration and study. It is considered a good policy never to enter a real estate transaction of any sort until after you have carefully considered and investigated the proposed deal carefully. There is no one more able and willing to co-operate in this line than Fred I. Gillick, who has been established for over thirty-three years.

Regardless of the nature of your visit to Mr. Gillick you are assured of receiving the most satisfactory service and whether you wish to buy, trade or sell, this Agency will be of great value to you in the proposed transaction. Here is an Agency of long years of experience who might well be termed experts in their line because of their knowledge in the field and the manner in which they conduct their business.

In the matter of listing your property it will be found that there is no more reliable Agency than this one to handle the deal, because they are continually in touch with buyers who are ready to buy and who have the money. In the matter of real estate investments we would urge that you visit this establishment where you are sure to find a large list of good town and suburban resident properties which are truly offered at attractive prices. Their service covers every phase of the work, so do not hesitate to call upon them at any time.

Mr. Gillick also features all forms of insurance and will obtain for you—a policy best fitted for your needs. He is a man worthy of the fullest consideration when insurance or real estate is brought to mind.

The Pickwick Recreation

Located in Park Ridge Pickwick Court, Pickwick Theatre Bldg., have modern equipped bowling alleys, where both ladies and men enjoy bowling, a most healthful sport.

Not everyone realizes that bowling is a healthful and pleasant exercise with all the requirements of a good clean sport. It has been said that bowling is America's passport to health.

The Pickwick have equipped their establishment to meet all the requirements of the game. They have invested much money and time in selecting their alleys and furnishing and have an up to date establishment where both old and young alike meet for recreation. Many ladies will tell you of their thrilling experiences after a visit there.

Bowling is one of the most popular indoor sports known. It is played and enjoyed by both sexes and its popularity is perhaps due to the fact that it isn't an expensive sport.

Much care is taken to keep their alleys and equipment in the best of condition. They will gladly instruct you in the game so if you are not familiar, get your friends together, make an appointment and spend an evening or afternoon at the Pickwick Recreation parlors.

Bowling is truly an intensely interesting game of skill, the unexpected is continually happening. It is a game of skill and science that develops accuracy and a strong, keen and quick mind. There is always a combination to solve.

It's a real pleasure to compliment those in charge of these alleys upon the high class entertainment they offer the public.

Nilles Oil Co.

With headquarters in Orchard Place, owned and operated by A. W. Nilles of Park Ridge, are distributors of high grade fuel oil, suitable for every burner. Phones Park Ridge 1223, Des Plaines 909.

This well known and reliable firm specializes in the sale and distribution of the better grade of fuel oils. The Nilles Oil Co. supplies a large territory and has become one of the foremost fuel oil companies in this part of the country.

By reason of their satisfactory service their business is increasing and it is well merited by them.

They maintain a motor truck service which daily covers the district on schedule time making deliveries to both large and small. It matters not whether you phone for 1,000 or only 25 gallons, you are accorded the same courteous and accommodating service.

The management is composed of men of broad experience and know the fuel oil business from A to Z. You can rely on what they tell you about the best grade of fuel oil for your burner.

This company's station equipment and trucks represent a large outlay of money and was made with the idea of giving the public a service unexcelled. All of their trucks are equipped with certified meters assuring their customers the correct amount of quality fuel oil. It is not surprising then that a business conducted along these lines should grow.

A. W. Nilles, the owner, has the interest of this community at heart and in this business review, embracing as it does the outstanding features of this community, due mention should be given his activities.

His best advertisement and greatest asset is his army of satisfied customers, due to his superior products and a service of par excellence.

Farm Co-ops Pay 1,000,000 In Refunds

EARL C. SMITH GIVES FIGURES OF PAST YEAR

Farm Supply Dividend
Averaged $22.50 for
Each Member

More than a million dollars in patronage refunds has returned in 1934 to farm bureau members of Illinois by the farmer's co-operatives in the fields of marketing, purchasing, and insurance. Development of these organizations, developed, organized, financed, controlled, and directed by the farm bureaus and the Illinois Agricultural Association, was discussed at the I. A. A. meeting in Quincy last week by Earl C. Smith, president of the association.

These co-operative organizations include the Illinois Farm Supply Company, the Illinois Farm Bureau Serum Association, the Illinois Agricultural Holding Company, the Illinois Grain Corporation, the Soybean Marketing Association, the Illinois Creameries Incorporated, the Country Life Insurance Company, the Illinois Agricultural Mutual Insurance Company, the Farmers Mutual Reinsurance Company, and the Illinois Agricultural Auditing Association.

With the exception of the Soybean Marketing Association, which has had peculiar problems since its organization, each company is without debt of any kind, has its capital intact, and has added substantially to its surplus after meeting all dividend requirements.

An average dividend of $22.50 per farm bureau member, a total of $630,000, was paid last year by the Farm Supply Company. For seven million gallons of petroleum products, the equivalent of a trainload per business day, were handled by the company.

At the close of 1934 the Farmers Mutual Reinsurance company policies in force totaled $96,340,000, a 66 per cent gain over the previous year. The Country Life Insurance company showed a gain of $12,000,000 to make its total policies more than $66,000,000. The Agricultural Mutual Insurance company received 9,333 applications for auto insurance during 1934, more than in any previous year.

Illinois Producers Creameries incorporated operates five plants located at Bloomington, Moline, Peoria, Champaign, and Olney, with the last two organized during recent months. In 1934 they churned and marketed 3,576,000 pounds of butter, a 94 per cent gain over the previous 12 months period, and the three creameries in operation more than a year returned patronage refunds of $43,232.

Stock and cash dividends totaling $27,735 were paid by the Illinois Grain corporation during the year, and the close of 1934 found the corporation with 27 additional elevator and grain association members. The 175 member units sold 8,431 carloads, a total of about thirteen and one half million bushels of grain through the Farmers National Grain corporation.

ABOUT POULTRY

By A. A. Paltz

Quality in Baby Chicks
The trend today in the poultry industry is toward grading chicks on the basis of breeding and health quality.

To illustrate: Two boxes of baby chicks may have about the same appearance if carefully selected and well hatched, but there may be a tremendous difference in their breeding and health quality which cannot be judged from their appearance.

Thus, when the chicks are grown and placed in the laying house one group proves to be exceptionally fine egg producers while the other group lay indifferently. The difference is in breeding.

Likewise, one group of chicks may be vigorous and very few losses result while a larger percentage of the other group are lost during the brooding season and again in the laying house.

Needless to say, the group of chicks which had the better breeding, both for egg production and for the livability factor, was the most economical.

Good quality chicks can be produced in fairly large quantities by the hatcheryman who uses pedigreed males from carefully selected high producing strains, to head his flocks.

But not all high producing strains are high livability strains. Both of these factors depend upon the breeder himself. So it is up to the hatcheryman to use great care in the selection of the strains which he uses for flock improvement purposes.

In this connection, the quality hatcheryman is in a fine position to do a good job of selection. Because of his experience with many strains of poultry and because he makes extensive purchases of improvement bloodlines he can obtain good improvement stock at a reasonable price.

Also the quality hatcheryman uses this well bred stock to the best possible advantage because he hatches chicks from it for a long season. The price of good stock is therefore spread out over a large volume of chicks and the extra cost per chick is very small.

In this way, a quality hatcheryman can render an extra service to chick buyers because he can supply them with high quality chicks at a far more reasonable price than they can produce the same high quality for themselves.

In the same way, he can test his breeding stock for pullorum disease (B.W.D.)—select his stock for "healthful" appearance, good type, body, weight and color.

If all of these services were performed on one small flock, the cost would be unreasonably high. Furthermore, if only a few hundred chicks were hatched from such flocks the expense per chick would be unreasonable.

But again the hatcheryman hatches from such a flock for a long season and also handles all work on a volume basis so he keeps his cost per chick down.

In buying your baby chicks for the 1935 season it will pay you to inquire into the breeding and health program in use by the hatcheryman from whom you buy. The price per chick is important to you at a reasonable price plus good all-around quality chicks is your most economical purchase.

Poultry Prospects Favorable for 1935 Says U. of I. Expert

By A. A. Paltz

Prospects are favorable for a good poultry income in 1935, but the flock owner who is looking for "easy money" may be disappointed, according to H. H. Alp, poultry extension specialist at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. Only efficient producers can hope to make the most of present prospects, he said.

"Those who can retain and feed their layers will be in the strongest position to take advantage of the favorable outlook. The high price and scarcity of grain is forcing a drastic reduction in numbers of livestock, including poultry, especially in the badly damaged drought areas. Supplies of both eggs and poultry will be relatively short until next summer when chickens of 1935 hatchings begin to affect supplies. Prices of poultry products may be expected to continue at seasonably high levels until that time.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

For Work to Be Constructed Under The Motor Fuel Tax Law

1. Time and place of opening bids Sealed proposals for the improvement of the thoroughfare (a) described herein will be received at the Village Hall by the President and Board of Trustees of Wheeling, Cook County, Illinois, until 8 o'clock p. m. February 21st, 1935, and at that time publicly opened and read.

2. Description of work, (a) The proposed work is located on S. B. I. Route 21.

(b) The proposed improvement is officially known as Milwaukee Avenue in the Village of Wheeling, Illinois.

(c) The proposed improvement is to be a two coat Bituminous Treatment on shoulders, each side of existing P. C. C. Pavement. For a total distance of 1800 feet.

3. (a) Proposal forms may be obtained of the Village Clerk.

(b) All proposals must be accompanied by a bank cashier's check, or bank draft for ten (10) per cent of the amount of the bid as provided in the "Standard Specifications for Road and Bridge Construction" prepared by the Department of Public Works and Buildings of the State of Illinois, adopted by said Department January 2, 1932, and Supplemental Specifications effective July 2, 1934.

4. Rejection of Bids. The President and Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive technicalities.

By order of
PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF VILLAGE OF WHEELING
ADELINE SCHNEIDER,
Village Clerk

Farm Value Rose in 1934 Despite Crop Shortages

In spite of the drought and crop shortage the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis realized 19 per cent more per acre for farms sold in 1934 over the sum obtained in 1933, reports Ray C. Nelson, of De Kalb, real estate fieldman for the Federal Land Bank in Northern Illinois. The average per acre price of the 515 farms sold by the bank in 1934 was $22.61 as compared with $19 in 1933.

Farms offered for sale by the Federal Land Bank are located in Illinois, Missouri, and Arkansas. The 1934 sales followed the area of best crops with fewer sales being reported in the sections most affected by drought.

Soybeans Get Attention of Farmers in Illinois; Many Different Varieties

Illinois' rapid rise to the national leadership in soybean production and the prospect for a still further increase in acreage during the coming year are drawing attention of farmers and plant breeders to marked differences between varieties of this crop.

The record crop of nine and a half million bushels in Illinois in 1934 was valued at more than eight million dollars and represented 54 per cent of the national production.

Soybean varieties have been found to vary not only in seed color but also in many other characters affecting their commercial production. These differences will become increasingly important as the production of the crop expands.

Shetland Ponies

Both pet and breeding stock on hand at all times, also pony carts, buggies, harness and saddles. One low iron wheeled wagon gear. One feed cutter and one animal clipper.

Seed Wheat and Seed Oats

We are expecting a carload of Montana Swedish Seed Oats and Marquis type Seed Wheat. Both grains are northern grown, and will, therefore, grow better in this territory than grain grown south of here.

We have samples on display at our office. As this grain is selling at a very attractive price, the orders are coming in rapidly.

Book your order early to avoid disappointment.
